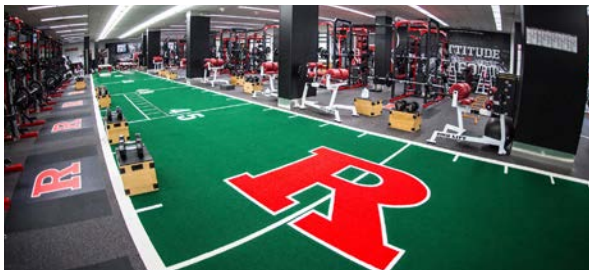
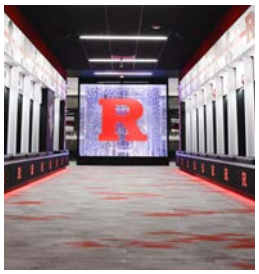
The all-time wins leader in Rutgers football history, Greg Schiano is in his 17th season as the head football coach "On the Banks." The second tenure, now in the Big Ten, has seen a rebuild headed in a positive direction, highlighted by exciting victories, bowl appearances, academic success and a pipeline of players to the NFL. All of this has taken place with increased fan support and unprecedented attendance records. The Wyckoff, New Jersey, native previously led the Scarlet Knights to new heights from 2001-11 before returning to the Piscataway sidelines in 2020. RU enters 2025 off back-to-back winning seasons and bowl game appearances. Overall, Schiano has directed the Scarlet Knights to three bowl appearances in the past four years, nine postseason berths overall and six bowl championships. He has coached 113 RU players who signed NFL contracts and guided the program to the top APR score in the nation during his time leading Rutgers football. The 2006 National Coach of the Year owns three nine-win campaigns and coached 20 Rutgers All-America selections.

Rutgers football continues to set records both on and off the field under the guidance of head coach Greg Schiano. Upholding the academic prestige of Rutgers University is the standard for the Scarlet Knights, who secured the nation's top Academic Progress Rate in 2010 and ranked No. 2 in 2011. The emphasis on academics continued with a program-record 57 named to the Academic All-Big Ten list in 2021 to highlight over 40 selections each year, including 35 earning distinguished status (3.7 GPA or better). The program recorded the highest GPA in team history during the spring 2025 semester.

The Scarlet Knights have made their impact felt in the community as well, volunteering with Special Olympics NJ, visiting local hospitals and participating in youth camps. The group has also lent its voice to critical discussions around social activism, racial justice and tolerance.





Rutgers football has one of the top football complexes in the nation. Included within the Hale Center is the state-of-the-art Ron and Joanna Garutti Strength and Conditioning Center, an interactive lobby entrance, spacious meeting rooms, a player lounge and an in-house academic support center.

The recently upgraded Marco Battaglia Practice Complex is the site where the Scarlet Knights train and practice and their downtime is spent in the the new Greg and Anna Brown Locker Room thanks to the generosity of the Brown family.

Rutgers football advanced to one bowl game in its history prior to Schiano's first tenure. Since then, he has led the program to nine of the school's 13 appearances, which includes five consecutive victories with the 2006 Texas Bowl being the first postseason win in school history. The success resumed with a win in the 2023 Bad Boy Mowers Pinstripe Bowl. Schiano's six bowl wins are tied for fourth-most among active Big Ten head coaches and tied for 11th among active FBS head coaches.

Rutgers football has established a strong pipeline to the National Football League, with 22 Scarlet Knights on rosters ahead of the 2025 season. Fifteen former Rutgers football standouts logged snaps in the league last fall, while six advanced to the playoffs. RB Isiah Pacheco competed in his third consecutive Super Bowl (Super Bowl LIX) with Kansas City. He was one of three Scarlet Knights to score touchdowns in 2024, alongside Michael Burton and Gus Edwards. Their combined seven touchdowns extended Rutgers' impressive streak to 29 consecutive seasons with a former player scoring in the NFL. This spring, three Scarlet Knights - DB Robert Longerbeam (Baltimore), DL Kyonte Hamilton (Houston) and RB Kyle Monangai (Chicago) - were selected in the 2025 NFL Draft. With six others signing free agent contracts, 113 Scarlet Knights have now joined the NFL after playing for head coach Greg Schiano.

THE RUTGERS BOARDWALK

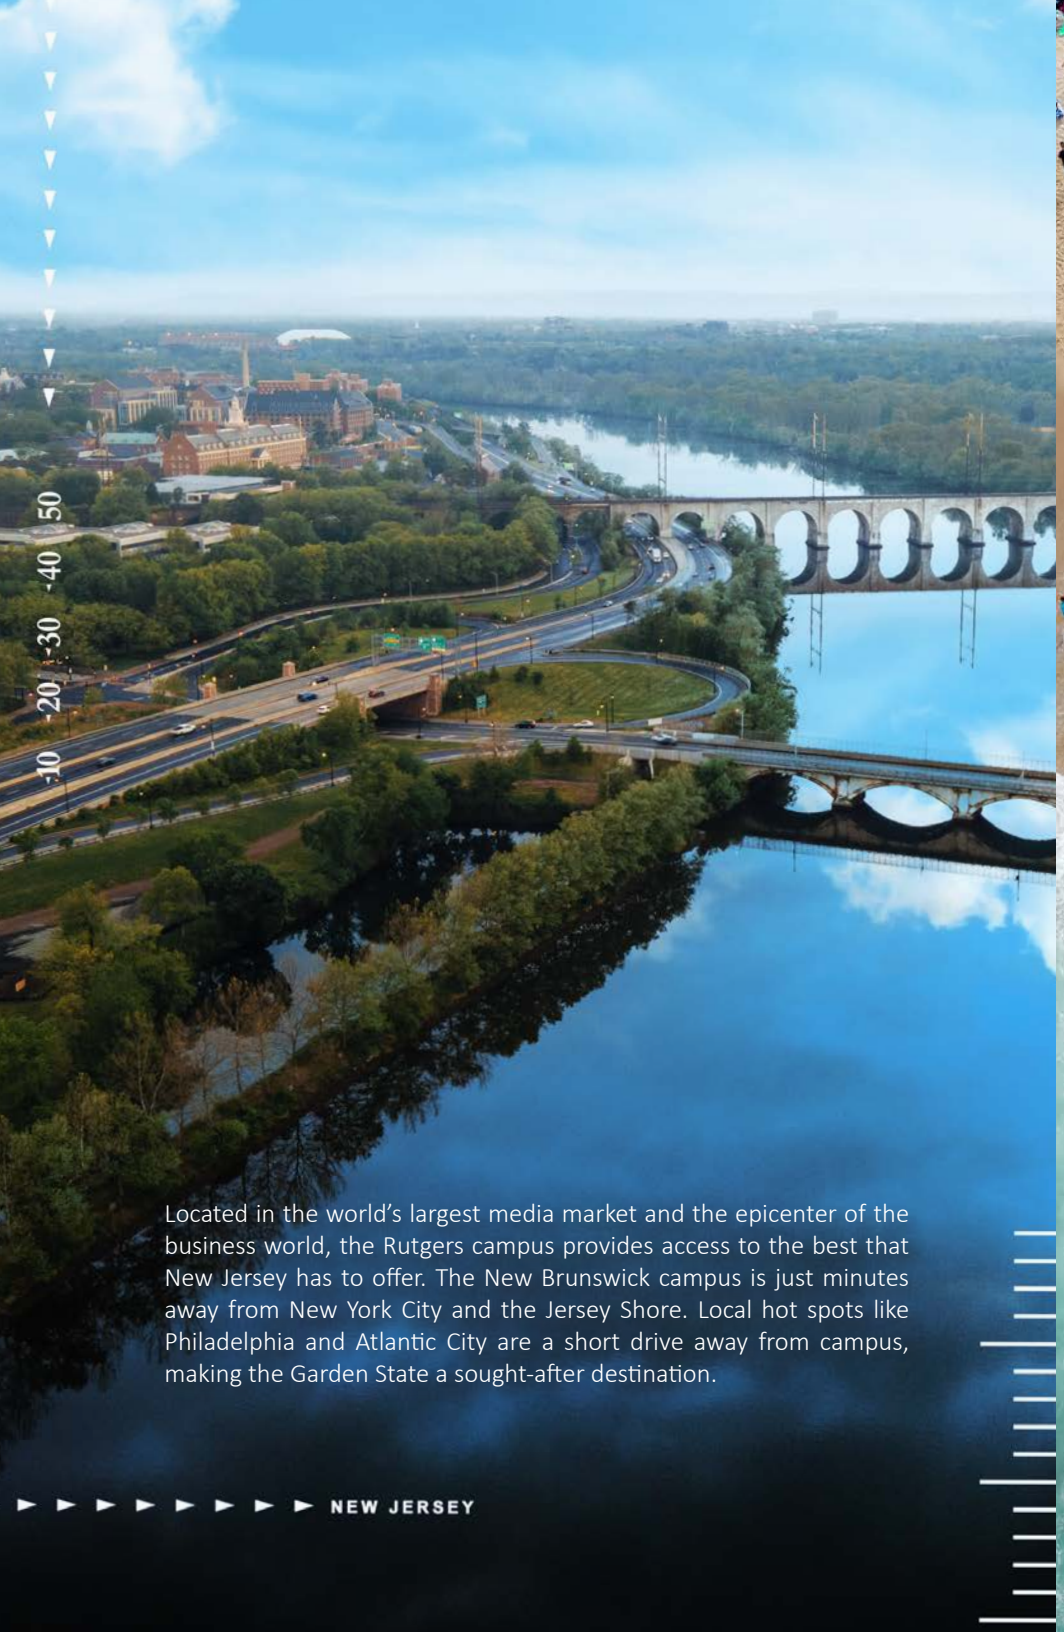
New Jersey is a state known for its grit, passion and energy. There's no better example of all of these things than Rutgers Football game day at SHI Stadium. Home of the Rutgers Scarlet Knights, SHI Stadium is located on Busch Campus in Piscataway, New Jersey. Packed, loud and 52,454 proud, SHI Stadium is the site for the ultimate college game day experience. The fun doesn't just begin at kickoff. Four hours prior to the start of each game, New Jerseyans unite in the excitement of our game day experience with The Rutgers Boardwalk. Visit The Rutgers Boardwalk to enjoy carnival games, rides, live entertainment, special guests, a beer garden, New Jersey's best food trucks and more. Entrance is free, and there's tons of fun for the whole family!

Get there early for the pregame parade and pep rally featuring the Marching Scarlet Knights, Spirit Team, Sir Henry and the Scarlet Knight riding his horse "Excalibur" down The Rutgers Boardwalk just before the football team arrives. Then, join your Scarlet Knights and head coach Greg Schiano at team arrival for the traditional Scarlet Walk! Get your high-fives from the team along the Scarlet Walk as they honor the long-standing tradition of touching the First Game statue that commemorates Rutgers' victory in the first college football game ever played.

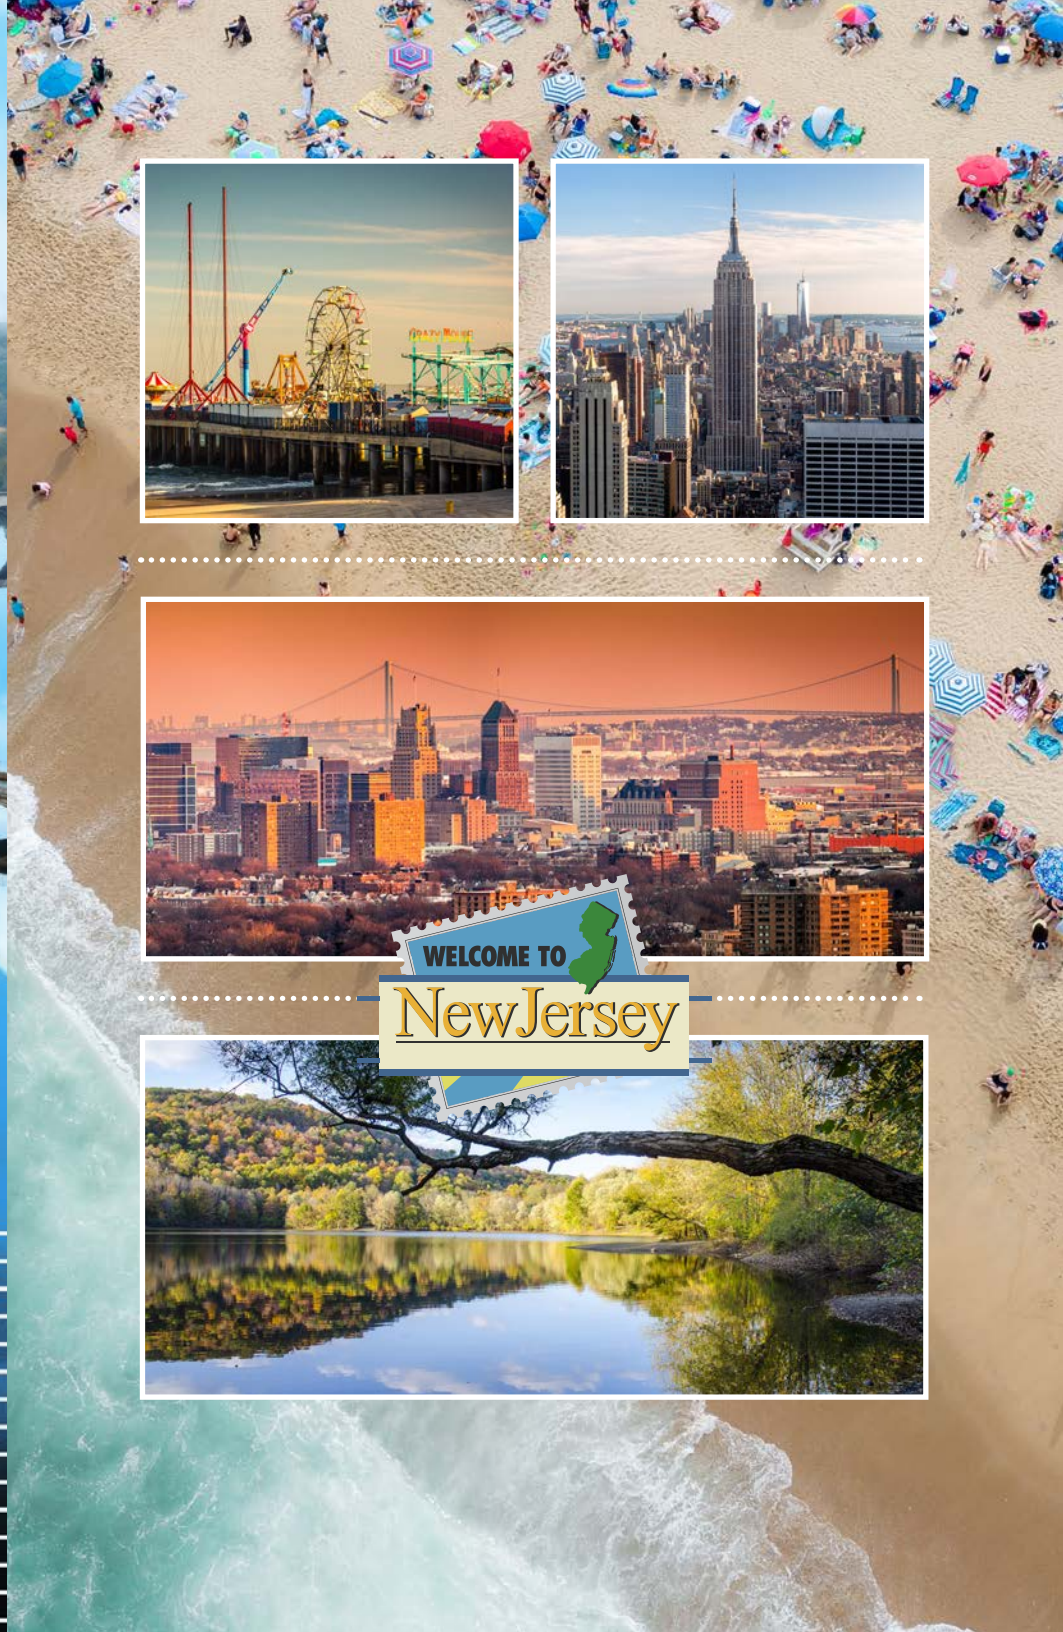
In New Jersey, our fans are just louder. Inside SHI Stadium you will find all of the traditions, characters and festivities of Rutgers Football. Be on the lookout for the Scarlet Knight, who can be seen riding his horse "Excalibur" across the field each time Rutgers scores. As the fans cheer you will also hear the boom of the revolutionary war-era cannon, fired by our historic Cannon Crew that symbolizes Henry Rutgers, the University's founder and American Revolutionary War colonel. You will also take in amazing fireworks and the classic celebratory train horn. Atop SHI Stadium, look for the number 52 displayed proudly over the 50-yard-line in honor of Eric LeGrand, a Rutgers icon and the only player in program history to have his number retired.

In the student section behind the south end zone, don't miss the Riot Squad, the best and most passionate group of student fans in the country. Next to them, you'll see and hear our Marching Scarlet Knights supplying energy and Rutgers pride to game day through fight songs, chants, as well as pregame and halftime performances. High above all of the festivities, check out SHI Stadium's brand-new state-of-the-art videoboard where you can catch exciting moments, such as the team's dramatic walk from the locker room to the field and the classic Sopranos-themed pregame video. Game day at SHI Stadium promises to be a memorable experience.

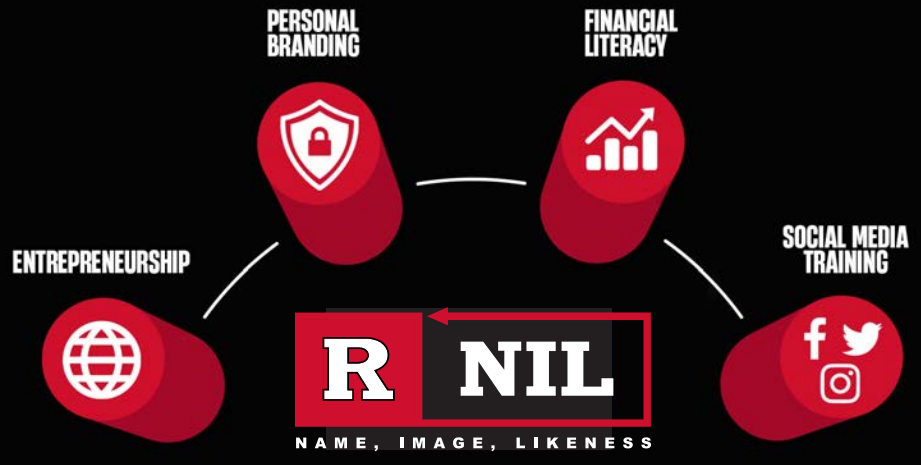
THE RUTGERS GAME DAY EXPERIENCE



Located in the world's largest media market and the epicenter of the business world, the Rutgers campus provides access to the best that New Jersey has to offer. The New Brunswick campus is just minutes away from New York City and the Jersey Shore. Local hot spots like Philadelphia and Atlantic City are a short drive away from campus, making the Garden State a sought-after destination.



Situated in the nation's largest media market, Rutgers student-athletes are uniquely positioned to capitalize on the exposure from nearly seven million television households in the most populated market area with over 20 million people. Rutgers also offers access to the country's most successful corporations and brands, and membership in the premier college athletics conference in the Big Ten.



Chop4Change, a 501c3 charity, involves giving back to the community through various forms and continues to be a staple of the Rutgers football culture.

COACHING STAFF

GREG SCHIANO

HEAD COACH (17TH SEASON)

The all-time wins leader in Rutgers football history, Greg Schiano is in his 17th season as the head football coach "On the Banks." The second tenure, now in the Big Ten, has seen a rebuild headed in a positive direction, highlighted by exciting victories, bowl appearances, academic success and a pipeline of players to the NFL. All of this has taken place with increased fan support and unprecedented attendance records. The Wyckoff, New Jersey, native previously led the Scarlet Knights to new heights from 2001-11 before returning to the Piscataway sidelines in 2020. RU enters 2025 off back-to-back winning seasons and bowl game appearances.

Overall, Schiano has directed the Scarlet Knights to three bowl appearances in the past four years, nine postseason berths overall and six bowl championships. He has coached 113 RU players who signed NFL contracts, guided the program to the top APR score in the nation and saw the program post a record-high GPA during the spring 2025 semester. The 2006 National Coach of the Year owns three nine-win campaigns and coached 20 Rutgers All-America selections.

RETURN TO RUTGERS

Coming back to Piscataway in Dec. 2019, Schiano has built the program with a foundation based on F.A.M.I.L.Y., TRUST and CHOP, emphasizing player and cultural development.

The Scarlet Knights won a program-best four Big Ten games in 2024 and picked up seven victories overall in the regular season for the first time in a decade. The season saw the team start 4-0, including a thrilling victory over Washington, the national runner-up the prior year, in front of the second-largest crowd in SHI Stadium history showcased on a FOX national primetime broadcast. The campaign ended with a 3-1 November to claim a bid to the Rate Bowl in Arizona.

RB Kyle Monangai, who developed into the second-leading rusher in school history, and OL Hollin Pierce earned All-America honors from Phil Steele, with Monangai becoming the first Scarlet Knight to claim First Team All-Big Ten on offense in both the coaches and media votes. The duo was part of 12 overall recognized in the All-Big Ten voting and among five from the program who were invited to the NFL Scouting Combine, the second-most in RU history.

Rutgers finished with a 2,000-yard passer (QB Athan Kaliakmanis), a 1,000-yard rusher (Monangai) and two 600-yard receivers (WR Dymere Miller and WR Ian Strong) for the first time since 2007. The team averaged 28.9 points per game, the best since 2008, while posting the fourth-most total offense (4,975) for a season in program history. In Big Ten-only statistics, the Scarlet Knights set team records for total offense (351.2) and rushing yards (149.8) per game.

The defense held 3-of-4 opponents under 20 points in November, as LB Dariel Djabome ranked fifth in the conference with 8.1 tackles per game. In the kicking game, PK Jai Patel matched the program record by making his final 13 field goals of the season, while the punt block unit added two more to its ledger and leads the nation with 10 punt blocks over the last three seasons.

"The ball is program" is the emphasis for success, as Rutgers led the Big Ten and ranked third nationally with just nine turnovers lost. That included winning or neutralizing the turnover battle in 11-of-13 games. The Scarlet Knights were also one of the least penalized teams nationally, ranking fifth with only four penalties against and 34.15 yards of penalty yardage per game.

Rutgers continues to develop players for the NFL, with DB Robert Longerbeam (Ravens), DL Kyonte Hamilton (Texans) and Monangai (Bears) all selected in the 2025 NFL Draft, the most picks for the program since 2013. Previously, DB Max Melton was selected in the second round of the 2024 NFL Draft by the Cardinals at No. 43 overall, the highest pick from RU since 2010. That followed DB Christian Braswell's selection by the Jaguars in 2023. In addition, 19 others have signed contracts as free agents over the past three seasons.

On the recruiting front, Schiano and his staff have continued to build the roster and fill the pipeline starting with the top players in New Jersey, as well as in the State of Rutgers and the Big Ten footprint. Attracting student-athletes to a F.A.M.I.L.Y. atmosphere, defined culture and proven record of player development, Rutgers signed a consensus top-30 class in 2025 with 10 four-star prospects. That followed bringing in seven four-stars in 2024, including welcoming the top 247Sports New York prospect for the third straight year. The 2022 class ranked as the highest for the Scarlet Knights in the Big Ten era according to ESPN and 247Sports. In addition, the program has successfully used the transfer portal to identify talent and cultural fits to immediately impact the program.

In 2023, the Scarlet Knights compiled seven wins for the program's first winning season since 2014. The campaign was capped by a 31-24 win over Miami in the Bad Boy Mowers Pinstripe Bowl. The regular season schedule ranked as the second-hardest nationally by ESPN, including wins over bowl participants Northwestern and Virginia Tech, plus an 18-point comeback in the fourth quarter to defeat Michigan State. In addition, Rutgers saw 13 different players recognized in the All-Big Ten voting, the second-highest total for the program in a season.

The defense ranked 16th nationally in total defense (313.5), posting its best mark and ranking for a season in the Big Ten era. Additionally, the Scarlet Knights recorded their best numbers in Big Ten play for total (337.9) and scoring defense (25.1). Monangai highlighted the offensive production with a Big Ten-best 1,262 rushing yards. On special teams, RU scored two game-changing touchdowns off blocked punts in wins over Indiana and Miami and Patel went 15-of-18 (83.3 percent) on field goals, the most accurate season in program history.

SCHIANO HAS LED RU TO NINE BOWL GAMES

Schiano led Rutgers to a 3-0 start in 2022. The win over Temple marked the 79th victory for Schiano, who passed the legendary Frank Burns as the program's all-time wins leader. Rutgers also set its average home attendance record, with nine home games over the last three seasons sold out, including three of the top four marks in stadium history. One of eight players to collect All-Big Ten honors, three-time captain P Adam Korsak earned First Team All-America status and won the 2022 Ray Guy Award as the nation's best punter. It marked the first on-field national award won by a Rutgers football player in program history.

The 2021 season featured two Big Ten road wins, a come-from-behind victory at Illinois that saw a late fourth-down stop and a five-touchdown triumph over Indiana, the program's largest margin of victory in a Big Ten game. The defense finished second in the conference in third-down conversions against, while the offense saw both WR Bo Melton (Seahawks) and RB Isiah Pacheco (Chiefs) selected in the NFL Draft. Led by Korsak, an All-America honoree by multiple outlets, the punt unit set the NCAA record for net punt average (45.25). Rutgers went 5-0 when committing no turnovers, with seven from the 2021 roster earning invitations to postseason all-star games and five signing NFL contracts, including Pacheco, who has appeared in the Super Bowl each of his first three professional seasons, winning two championships as the Chiefs' starting tailback.

With just nine days' notice, Schiano led the Scarlet Knights to the 2021 TaxSlayer Gator Bowl on New Year's Eve, battling top-20 Wake Forest in front of a national television audience of over three million on ESPN. Johnny Langan garnered Rutgers' MVP for the game, as the Scarlet Knights gained valuable experience and exposure participating in the nation's sixth-oldest bowl game.

The 2020 season presented unforeseen challenges dealing with the coronavirus pandemic. Playing a Big Ten-only schedule, the Scarlet Knights were one of just two teams in the conference to play all nine of its scheduled games. RU, despite missing spring and summer camp, matched the program high at the time with three Big Ten victories, all away from Piscataway to equal the number of league road wins the previous six seasons combined. Rutgers posted a program-best 26.7 points per game in a Big Ten season. The Scarlet Knights had 14 players recognized in the All-Big Ten voting, the most for the program since joining the conference. That included four on the top-three teams, with WR Aron Cruickshank, the Big Ten Rodgers-Dwight Return Specialist of the Year and honorable mention All-America pick by Phil Steele, and LB Olakunle Fatukasi both earning first-team honors.

Off the field, the Scarlet Knights launched #Chop4Change to spread a message of unity and equality, while registering every student-athlete on the team to vote in elections. The initiative also involves giving back to the community through various forms and continues to be a staple of the Rutgers football culture.

The program also achieved academic success with 245 student-athletes recognized on the Fall Academic All-Big Ten list the past five years, resetting the program record twice, with 10 earning distinguished status in 2025. The team posted its highest GPA (3.39) ever as a program during the spring 2025 semester.

BOWL SUCCESS

Rutgers football advanced to one bowl game in its history prior to Schiano's first tenure. Since then, he has guided the program to nine of the school's 13 bowl appearances, including a streak of five consecutive bowl victories, starting with the program's first postseason win at the 2006 Texas Bowl. The success resumed with a win in the 2023 Bad Boy Mowers Pinstripe Bowl. Schiano's six bowl wins are tied for fourth-most among active Big Ten head coaches and tied for 11th among active FBS head coaches.

Building up the Scarlet Knights with three rejuvenating recruiting classes to start, Schiano put together an upset win over Syracuse to close 2003 before knocking off Michigan State to start 2004. The team broke through in 2005 with a 7-5 record, the first winning season since 1992 and a trip to the Insight Bowl for RU's first bowl trip since 1978.

Moving to the memorable 2006 campaign, Rutgers went 11-2, earned the program's first national top-10 ranking, peaking at No. 7, and won a bowl championship with a convincing 37-10 victory over Kansas State in the Texas Bowl. "Pandemonium in Piscataway" was achieved with a 28-25 upset of No. 3 Louisville in front of a raucous home crowd and national television audience. It was the first triumph for the program over a top-25 opponent since 1988. Schiano collected the Eddie Robinson, Walter Camp, Home Depot and Liberty Mutual National Coach of the Year, as well as the Big East Coach of the Year following the season. The final national ranking of No. 12 still stands as the high-water mark in program history. RU was ranked 20 weeks during Schiano's first tenure after appearing in the AP Poll only nine times prior.

The momentum continued in 2007 with eight more wins, which included a 30-27 victory over No. 2 USF. The season was capped by running past Ball State, 52-30, in the International Bowl and set school records for scoring (426), first downs (294) and total offense (5,841). RU also became the first and still only team in NCAA history to have a 3,000-yard passer (QB Mike Teel), a 2,000-yard rusher (RB Ray Rice) and two 1,000-yard receivers (WR Kenny Britt & WR Tiquan Underwood) in the same season. The 2008 campaign started 1-5, but the Scarlet Knights reeled off a six-game winning streak to become bowl eligible again and went on to beat NC State, 29-23, in the PapaJohns.com Bowl to finish with seven-straight in the win column. Then in 2009, RU beat a top-25 opponent for the fourth consecutive year with a 31-0 shutout of No. 23 USF and took down UCF, 45-24, in the St. Petersburg Bowl to finish off a 9-4 season.

In 2011, Rutgers had its third nine-win season under Schiano, tying Burns for the most in program history. The Scarlet Knights defeated Iowa State, 27-13, in the Pinstripe Bowl for the fifth consecutive bowl win.

Schiano has coached the leading rusher, passer and receiver by yards in Rutgers football history, sending all to the NFL. Rice finished with 4,926 rushing yards, 1,705 more than second place, with 49 touchdowns. He holds the top two spots on the RU single-game rushing leaderboard with a high of 280 in the 2008 International Bowl. Teel was a three-year starter and is the only signal caller in school history to lead the Scarlet Knights to three bowl victories. Throwing for 9,398 yards overall, he still owns single-game school records for passing yards (447) and touchdowns (7) in Rutgers' 63-14 victory over Louisville in 2008. Britt was a primary target for Teel, recording 3,403 receiving yards. He once had five consecutive games with over 100 yards and totaled 14 such outings, both school standards.

Schiano has also turned special teams into a game-changing force for the Scarlet Knights. RU has blocked 73 kicks to rank among the nation's leaders, while scoring 63 defensive/special teams touchdowns, including 12 since 2020. PK Jeremy Ito shattered the school record with 80 career field goals and earned All-America status, with Korsak also achieving national accolades in helping RU set the NCAA record for net punt average (45.25) in 2021 and leading the country in punt defense with minus 11 return yards against on the way to winning the Ray Guy Award in 2022. In 2023, Patel logged the most accurate field goal season in program history with 15-of-18 connections (83.3 percent) and followed that by tying the school record with 13 consecutive makes in 2024.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

While producing victories at a rate unprecedented in the program's history, Rutgers football is equally committed to succeeding in the classroom. In 2010, Rutgers ranked first in the nation in Academic Progress Rate. The team followed that up with the nation's No. 2 ranking in 2011. The program was the lone state university to be ranked in the top 10 percent nationally in APR during each of Schiano's last five seasons of his first term.

DB Nate Jones became the program's first two-time CoSIDA Academic All-America selection (2002-03) and was a member of the National Football Foundation/College Football Hall of Fame National Scholar Class of 2003, one of just eight FBS players honored. In addition, LB Brandon Renkart earned CoSIDA Academic All-America status in 2007, while FB Brian Leonard received the prestigious Draddy Trophy, recognized as the "Academic Heisman," in 2006.

The emphasis on academics continued with a program-record 57 named to the Academic All-Big Ten list in 2021, 46 honorees in 2020, 41 in 2022, 51 in 2023 and 50 in 2024, including 35 earning distinguished over than span (3.7 GPA or better). The program recorded the highest GPA (3.39) in team history during the spring 2025 semester.

KNIGHTS IN THE NFL

Owning five years of NFL sideline experience, including two as the head coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2012-13), Schiano has mentored 113 Scarlet Knights who went on to sign NFL contracts. That includes first-round picks in Britt (2009), OL Anthony Davis (2010) and DB Devin McCourty (2010). Rutgers had never had a player taken in the first round before Britt went 30th overall to the Tennessee Titans. Davis' selection at No. 11 by the San Francisco 49ers marked the highest draftee in school history. McCourty, who went 27th to the New England Patriots, won three rings in five trips to the Super Bowl during his illustrious professional career.

The pipeline continued in 2025 with Longerbeam (Ravens), Hamilton (Texans) and Monangai (Bears) all selected in the NFL Draft, the most RU selections since 2013. Max Melton went off the board in 2024, being drafted in the second round (pick 43) by the Arizona Cardinals, the highest RU pick since 2010. The cornerback was named the Cardinals' Defensive Rookie of the Year by Sports Illustrated.

Both Bo Melton (Seahawks) and Pacheco (Chiefs) were drafted in 2022, with Pacheco emerging as one of the best stories in the NFL with 830 rushing yards, five touchdowns and a victory in Super Bowl LVII as a rookie. He followed that with another championship to cap the 2023 season in becoming the first starting running back to win consecutive Super Bowls during his first two years in the league. Super Bowl LVIII saw Pacheco face off against Logan Ryan (49ers), as 19 former RU players coached by Schiano have reached the big game, with 13 earning rings. In 2023, Braswell was taken by the Jaguars and six others signed contracts. Thirteen more were signed over the past two years.

Overall, 21 Scarlet Knights who played for Schiano at Rutgers entered 2025 training camp active on NFL rosters: DB Tre Avery, TE Shawn Bowman, DB Christian Braswell, FB Michael Burton, LS Andrew DePaola, DL Kyonte Hamilton, DB Desmond Igbinosun, DL Isaiah Iton, DB Christian Izien, WR JaQuae Jackson, DB Robert Longerbeam, DB Shaquan Loyal, PK Jude McAtamney, WR Bo Melton, DB Max Melton, WR Dymere Miller, RB Kyle Monangai, RB Isiah Pacheco, OL Hollin Pierce, LB Tyreem Powell and DB Eric Rogers.

PRIOR SUCCESS

Schiano returned to the sidelines as the associate head coach and defensive coordinator, also coaching safeties, at Ohio State in 2016. He coached 10 players who were NFL Draft picks, five of whom were first-round selections during his three seasons. There were three first-round picks from the secondary in the 2017 NFL Draft: S Malik Hooker (Colts), CB Gareon Conley (Raiders) and CB Marshon Lattimore (Saints). Hooker, a unanimous All-America pick in 2016, was first nationally with three pick-sixes and third with seven interceptions that season. The Buckeyes went 36-5 in Schiano's three years as defensive coordinator and 24-3 against Big Ten opponents. That led to two Big Ten titles, plus wins in the 2017 Cotton Bowl and 2019 Rose Bowl. In addition, OSU was No. 6 nationally in total defense under Schiano in 2016 when advancing to the College Football Playoff semifinals. The Buckeyes were one of just three programs to rank in the top 10 in total defense in both 2016 and 2017. Schiano was the No. 2 recruiter in the nation by 247Sports and CBSSports.com for the 2018 signing class.

Schiano served as the defensive coordinator at Miami in 1999 and 2000 before becoming the Rutgers head coach. The Hurricanes posted a 20-5 record during that time, including an 11-1 mark, the No. 2 national ranking and a Sugar Bowl win in 2000. That defense finished fifth nationally in scoring defense (15.5) after ranking 12th in the category the year before (17.2). Following the 2000 season, LB Dan Morgan, who was the 11th overall pick in the NFL Draft, became the first player in college football history to win the Butkus Award (top linebacker), Nagurski Award (college defensive player of the year) and Bednarik Award (top defensive player) in the same year, in addition to being a consensus First Team All-America selection and the Big East Defensive Player of the Year. S Ed Reed was also a consensus First Team All-America honoree in 2000 and would later earn a spot in both the College Football Hall of Fame and Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Prior to his assignment in Miami, Schiano spent three seasons in the NFL with the Chicago Bears (1996-98). The 1997 team placed first in the NFC in third-down defense (31.7 percent), while the 1996 squad climbed from 27th in the NFL to 11th in fewest yards allowed. Schiano was the defensive backfield coach at Penn State from 1991-95 after working as a graduate assistant in 1990. The Nittany Lions picked up 58 wins throughout those years and made six bowl appearances. The 1994 PSU team went 12-0 (8-0 Big Ten) and finished No. 2 in the national rankings after beating Oregon in the Rose Bowl. Schiano previously was a graduate assistant at Rutgers in 1989, beginning his coaching career as an assistant at his alma mater, Ramapo High School, the year before.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

Schiano was a three-year letterwinner at linebacker for Bucknell (1985-87). He was named to the Sporting News All-America Preseason Team in 1987. He served as a team captain his senior year after leading the team with 114 tackles as a junior to earn All-Patriot League honors.

RUTGERS

• In helping the Scarlet Knights to a second consecutive winning season and bowl berth in 2024, Rutgers averaged 28.9 points per game, the team's best mark in the Big Ten era and most since 2008. The 376 points scored overall and 4,975 yards of total offense both marked the fourth-most season totals in program history, while the 293 first downs were second. The 175.3 rushing yards per game ranked third in the Big Ten for the team's best placement since joining the league. In addition, the Scarlet Knights converted on third down at a clip of 44 percent, the first time reaching 40 percent since 2008 and best percentage since 2007, while ranking third nationally with just nine turnovers lost.
• In Big Ten-only statistics, Rutgers set team records for total offense (351.2) and rushing yards (149.8) per game.
• Rutgers finished with a 2,000-yard passer (QB Athan Kaliakmanis), a 1,000-yard rusher (RB Kyle Monangai) and two 600-yard receivers (WR Dymere Miller and WR Ian Strong) for the first time since 2007.
• Kaliakmanis ranked fifth in the Big Ten with 12.7 yards per completion, sixth with 18 passing touchdowns and seventh with 226.7 yards of total offense per game. The fifth player in program history to record 200 or more completions in a season, he threw for 2,696 yards to become first Rutgers quarterback to reach 2,000 yards in a season since 2015.
• Monangai, a draft pick of the Chicago Bears, became the first Scarlet Knight to earn First Team All-Big Ten on offense in both the coaches and media votes after rushing for 1,279 yards, second-most in the conference. Later named Fourth Team All-America by Phil Steele, he finished with the second-most career rushing yards (3,221) in program history and ranks third with 14 100-yard rushing games, seventh with 3,473 all-purpose yards and seventh with 27 rushing touchdowns. Overall, the running back position group had no fumbles for the season, as RB Antwan Raymond scored eight rushing touchdowns, the most in a season for a Rutgers true freshman in program history and second-most among Power Four true freshmen. He totaled 457 rushing yards overall to lead all Big Ten true freshmen and rank fifth among Power Four players in his class in 2024.
• WR Dymere Miller recorded 59 receptions, the ninth-most in a season in program history, and 757 receiving yards, the most by a Scarlet Knight since 2015. WR Ian Strong scored a receiving touchdown in four straight games, the first Scarlet Knight to achieve the feat since 2010, while WR KJ Duff placed fourth in the league among true freshmen with 425 receiving yards.
• The offensive line earned a spot on the Joe Moore Award Midseason Honor Roll for the first time. The Joe Moore Award annually honors the top offensive line in college football based on toughness, effort, teamwork, consistency, technique and finishing. OL Hollin Pierce, an honorable mention All-America selection by Phil Steele, graded out as the No. 11 tackle nationally, No. 6 in the Power Four and No. 2 in the Big Ten by Pro Football Focus, also claiming the distinction as the first RU offensive lineman to earn a spot on one of the three All-Big Ten teams.
• In 2023, Rutgers was the most improved team in the Big Ten by total offense (+24.1) on the way to securing the program's first winning season since 2014 and a victory in the Bad Boy Mowers Pinstripe Bowl. The Scarlet Knights averaged 168.7 rushing yards per game (fifth in the Big Ten), led by the conference's leading rusher in Monangai (1,262 yards). Monangai was RU's first 1,000-yard rusher since 2012 and voted Second Team All-Big Ten.

ROBB SMITH

CO-DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Robb Smith is in his seventh season at Rutgers in 2025 and serves as co-defensive coordinator and play caller. A native of Leechburg, Pennsylvania, Smith previously worked on the Scarlet Knights' staff in various roles, including as defensive coordinator, from 2009-12 and from 2020-21. He also worked on Schiano's staff for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2013. A two-time Broyles Award nominee, he most recently coordinated the Duke defense in 2022, one of the top turnarounds nationally, and was part of Penn State's staff the past two years (2023-24).

RECENT EXPERIENCE

• Smith worked as an analyst for a Nittany Lion team that appeared in the 2024 Big Ten Championship Game and won two games in the College Football Playoff. He also handled the role of co-defensive coordinator and play caller for the 2023 Peach Bowl.
• Smith served as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Duke in 2022. After the Blue Devils recorded an 0-8 ledger in ACC play in 2021, Smith took over the defense and guided the team to a 5-3 conference mark to match the best one-year improvement by a winless team in league history. In addition, the plus-six wins overall equaled the second-best turnaround in ACC history. The defense went from ranked 127th nationally to 31st in points allowed per game, while the team had an ACC-best and No. 2 national turnover margin of plus-16, claiming the Military Bowl over UCF for its ninth win of the year.

RUTGERS

• Smith mentored nine players to 12 All-Big Ten honors as defensive coordinator in two seasons (2020-21), including two-time recipients in LB Olakunle Fatukasi, DB Christian Izien and DL Julius Turner. Fatukasi and Izien joined DB Tre Avery, DB Christian Braswell, DL Michael Dwumfour, LB Deion Jennings, LB Tyreek Maddox-Williams, DL Ifeanyi Maijeh, DB Max Melton, DB Avery Young and DB Brendon White as Scarlet Knights on the defensive side of the ball who signed NFL contracts.
• In 2021, Rutgers held opponents to 52-for-162 on third down (32.1 percent), the 11th-best percentage nationally following the regular season. That mark included nine games allowing five or less conversions. The Scarlet Knights also finished the season holding opponents to under 300 yards of total offense on six different occasions.
• Smith led a defense that gained 19 turnovers in 2020, most in a season for the team since 2012 when he was previously RU defensive coordinator, and an increase of 10 from the preceding season. That included at least one takeaway in eight games, multiple in four games and at least four two times highlighted by seven (most for Rutgers in a game since 2000) in the season-opening win at Michigan State.
• Rutgers led the Big Ten and ranked No. 11 nationally with 7.8 tackles-for-loss per game. The team had three games in double figures with a high of 13 in the win at Maryland.
• Rutgers posted 21 sacks, most in a Big Ten season and an increase of eight from the previous season.

PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE

• Smith spent the 2019 season as a defensive analyst with Texas A&M and prior to that, served as the defensive coordinator at Minnesota during the 2017 and 2018 seasons.
• The Golden Gophers allowed a total of 274 points in 2017, the fewest permitted by the team since 2004. Smith also worked with the linebackers and saw LB Thomas Barber earn All-Big Ten Third Team honors after posting 115 tackles.
• Smith came to Minnesota from Arkansas, where he spent three seasons as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach. His defense ranked No. 10 in both scoring defense (19.2 points per game) and total defense (323.4 yards per game) in 2014.

ZACH SPARBER

CO-DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/LINEBACKERS

A native of Norwood, New Jersey, Zach Sparber returns to the Garden State as co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach. He served as linebackers coach and helped James Madison to one of the top defenses nationally in 2024. Overall, Sparber has been to five bowl games and has previously worked under notable defensive-minded coaches including Mike Elko, Bud Foster and co-defensive coordinator Robb Smith.

2024: James Madison (linebackers)
2023: Duke (linebackers analyst)
2021-22: Duke (defensive graduate assistant)
2018-20: Virginia Tech (defensive graduate assistant)
2017: Bergen Catholic HS (offensive line/recruiting coordinator/assistant strength & conditioning)
2016: Stonehill (defensive line)

JAMES MADISON

• Serving as linebackers coach for the nine-win Dukes in 2024, Sparber helped lead a unit that led the Group of Five and ranked third nationally with 29 turnovers gained, while ranking first in the Sun Belt Conference in total defense (321.8), scoring defense (20.5), rushing defense (115.4), sacks (3.15), first downs defense (227), interceptions (17) and fumbles recovered (12).
• JMU, No. 21 nationally in scoring defense, capped the season winning the Boca Raton Bowl, the first bowl championship in program history.
• LB Jacob Dobbs earned College Sports Communicators Second Team Academic All-America status to add to Second Team All-Sun Belt and a spot on the Butkus Award watch list.

DUKE

• Sparber served three seasons on the Duke staff (2021-23), being promoted to linebackers analyst in 2023. That season saw the Blue Devils finish with an 8-5 overall record, highlighted by victories over No. 9 Clemson and Troy in the 76 Birmingham Bowl. Sparber coached LB Tre Freeman to Second Team All-ACC honors, and the Duke defense ranked 10th nationally in red zone defense (.744) and 16th in scoring defense (19.0), which led the ACC.
• In 2022 under Elko and Smith, Duke posted a 9-4 overall record and defeated UCF in the Military Bowl. Sparber mentored LB Shaka Heyward to All-ACC honors, as he finished his Duke career tied for eighth in fumble recoveries (5), 12th in tackles-for-loss (32.5), 13th in tackles (339) and tied for 14th in sacks (11.5). Also an All-ACC linebacker in 2021, Heyward later signed with the Cincinnati Bengals after competing in the East-West Shrine Bowl and the NFL Scouting Combine.

PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE

• Sparber spent three seasons as a graduate assistant coach at Virginia Tech (2018-20), where he worked under Foster, a Broyles Award winner. While with the Hokies, Sparber helped the program win 19 games and make appearances at the 2018 Military Bowl and the 2019 Belk Bowl.
• Sparber spent the 2017 season as an offensive line coach, recruiting coordinator and assistant strength and conditioning coach at Bergen Catholic High School, his alma mater. During his one season with the program, the Crusaders finished 10-2, claimed the Group IV State Championship and were a top-25 team nationally, including a No. 1 ranking in the state of New Jersey. All five of Bergen Catholic's offensive linemen went on to play college football, including all-state tackle Bryan Felter, currently a member of the Scarlet Knights.
• In 2016, Sparber served as the defensive line coach at Stonehill College. While on staff, Sparber's defensive unit led the Northeast-10 in fewest rushing yards allowed.

RUTGERS

• Shaw was named a nominee for the 2024 Broyles Award as one of the top assistant coaches in the nation.
• Helping the Scarlet Knights to a second consecutive winning season and bowl berth in 2024, Rutgers averaged 28.9 points per game, the team's best mark in the Big Ten era and most since 2008. The 376 points scored overall and 4,975 yards of total offense both marked the fourth-most season totals in program history, while the 293 first downs were second. In addition, RU converted on third down at a clip of 44 percent, the first time reaching 40 percent since 2008.
• Rutgers rushed for 2,279 yards, its best total in the Big Ten era, most since 2007 and 10th-highest mark for a season in program history. The 175.3 rushing yards per game ranked third in the Big Ten for the team's best placement since joining the league.
• Monangai became the first Scarlet Knight to earn First Team All-Big Ten on offense in both the coaches and media votes after rushing for 1,279 yards, second-most in the conference. Later named Fourth Team All-America by Phil Steele, he finished his career with the second-most career rushing yards (3,221) in program history and ranks third with 14 100-yard rushing games, seventh with 3,473 all-purpose yards and seventh with 27 rushing touchdowns. He was selected in the seventh round of the 2025 NFL Draft by the Chicago Bears.
• Overall, the running back position group had no fumbles for the season, as RB Antwan Raymond scored eight rushing touchdowns, the most in a season for a Rutgers true freshman in program history and second-most among Power Four true freshmen. He totaled 457 rushing yards overall to lead all Big Ten true freshmen and rank fifth among Power Four players in his class in 2024.
• Shaw took over as running backs coach in 2023 and helped mentor Monangai to a Big Ten-best 1,262 rushing yards. The Scarlet Knights were the most improved team in the Big Ten by total offense (+24.1) on the way to securing the program's first winning season since 2014 and a victory in the Bad Boy Mowers Pinstripe Bowl.
• Rutgers averaged 168.7 rushing yards per game (fifth in the Big Ten), improving by 40.5 rushing yards per game compared to 2022. That included four games with at least 250 rushing yards, matching the number of such games the previous six seasons combined (70 games). The Scarlet Knights had six games with at least 200 rushing yards, the most in a season since 2007.
• Monangai earned Second Team All-Big Ten honors after recording seven 100-yard games, including 159 versus No. 1/3 Ohio State, the second most ever for a Scarlet Knight against a ranked opponent. He graded as the top running back in the Big Ten, best in the Power 5 and No. 5 nationally by Pro Football Focus, forcing 73 missed tackles to lead the conference.
• Shaw was elevated to wide receivers coach prior to spring practice in 2022. WR Sean Ryan led the Big Ten with 16.9 yards per reception that season and signed with the Baltimore Ravens.
• Shaw was selected as a member of the 2022 247Sports 30Under30 list, which identifies 30 rising stars in the coaching and personnel space under the age of 30.
• Shaw joined the Scarlet Knights in 2020, spearheading initiatives as the director of player development in preparing student-athletes for personal, academic and athletic success. That included the creation of Chop4Change to spread a message of unity and equality amidst the national social justice discussion, while registering every student-athlete on the team to vote in the 2020 election. The program continues to be a staple of Rutgers football.

PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE

• Shaw was hired as assistant wide receivers coach for the Carolina Panthers in the winter of 2020 before joining the Scarlet Knights.
• As the wide receivers coach at Fordham in 2019, Shaw mentored three wideouts to over 600 receiving yards, the only team in the Patriot League to achieve the feat. That included rookie WR DeQuece Carter, who broke the school record for receptions (53) and receiving yards (723) by a freshman.
• Shaw spent the 2017 and 2018 seasons as an offensive quality control coach at Baylor.

1982-83: Penn State (assistant offensive line)
1980-81: East Stroudsburg (offensive line)
1978-80: Delone Catholic High School (football and basketball assistant)

RUTGERS

• In helping the Scarlet Knights to a second consecutive winning season and bowl berth in 2024, Rutgers averaged 28.9 points per game, the team's best mark in the Big Ten era and most since 2008. The 376 points scored overall and 4,975 yards of total offense both marked the fourth-most season totals in program history, while the 293 first downs were second. The 175.3 rushing yards per game ranked third in the Big Ten for the team's best placement since joining the league.
• The offensive line earned a spot on the Joe Moore Award Midseason Honor Roll for the first time. The Joe Moore Award annually honors the top offensive line in college football based on toughness, effort, teamwork, consistency, technique and finishing.
• OL Hollin Pierce, an honorable mention All-America selection by Phil Steele who signed with the Philadelphia Eagles, graded out as the No. 11 tackle nationally, No. 6 in the Power Four and No. 2 in the Big Ten by Pro Football Focus, also claiming the distinction as the first RU offensive lineman to earn a spot on one of the three All-Big Ten teams. OL Gus Zilinskas (center) earned honorable mention for the second time, while OL Kwabena Asamoah (guard) was selected for the first time.
• The position group blocked for an offense that was one of just five Big Ten units to produce a 2,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard rusher and two 600-yard receivers. That included First Team All-Big Ten RB Kyle Monangai, who ranked second in the Big Ten with 116.3 rushing yards per game and fourth with 13 rushing touchdowns.
• In 2023, Rutgers was the most improved team in the Big Ten by total offense (+24.1) on the way to securing the program's first winning season since 2014 and a victory in the Bad Boy Mowers Pinstripe Bowl.
• Rutgers led the Big Ten and ranked No. 11 nationally with just 1.08 sacks allowed per game. That included four games with none permitted, 10 with one or less and no games with more than three. The total of 14 is the fewest permitted for the team in a season since 2012. In addition, the Scarlet Knights ranked No. 3 in the Big Ten and 12th nationally with just 4.1 tackles-for-loss permitted per game.
• Three offensive linemen were honored in the All-Big Ten voting, the most for the program at the position group in a year since joining the Big Ten. That included Pierce being rated as the No. 6 tackle in the conference by Pro Football Focus, with OL Bryan Felter (guard) and Zilinskas (center) also claiming recognition.
• The Scarlet Knights averaged 168.7 rushing yards per game (fifth in the Big Ten), led by the conference's leading rusher, Monangai (1,262 yards), who was RU's first 1,000-yard rusher since 2012, voted Second Team All-Big Ten and rated as the top running back in the Big Ten, best in the Power 5 and No. 5 nationally by Pro Football Focus.

NEW YORK GIANTS

• Flaherty was the offensive line coach for the Giants for 12 seasons (2004-15), helping the offense finish in the top 10 in the NFL six times and winning two Super Bowls (XLII, XLVI). The team had a 1,000-yard rusher in seven seasons, including the three best individual rushing seasons in team history (RB Tiki Barber, 2004-06). His unit, anchored by Pro Bowl selections OL David Diehl, OL Shaun O'Hara (Rutgers graduate) and OL Chris Snee, also protected QB Eli Manning, who started 183 consecutive games during Flaherty's tenure with the franchise and passed for 4,000-plus yards on five occasions.

SCOTT VALLONE

TIGHT ENDS

Scott Vallone is in his second season as tight ends coach in 2025. A former standout defensive lineman for the Scarlet Knights, the Central Islip, New York, native has been on the offensive staff since returning to RU in 2020.

The 175.3 rushing yards per game ranked third in the Big Ten for the team's best placement since joining the league.
• TE Kenny Fletcher, who converted to the position group after beginning his career on defense, tallied seven receptions in the win at Virginia Tech, the most by a RU tight end since 2013, adding touchdowns in the previous victories over Howard and Akron.
• Vallone served as a quality control coach the previous three seasons (2021-23) after spending 2020 as an offensive graduate assistant for the Scarlet Knights. Focusing on the offensive line, Rutgers saw two from the unit earn honorable mention All-Big Ten in 2020.
• In 2023, RU capped the season with a 31-24 victory over Miami in the Bad Boy Mowers Pinstripe Bowl to secure the program's first winning season since 2014. The Scarlet Knights finished as the most improved team in the Big Ten by total offense (+24.1), led the league and ranked No. 11 nationally with just 1.08 sacks allowed per game and placed fifth in the conference with 168.7 rushing yards per game, posting 2,193 rushing yards for the team's best total since 2007.
• Three offensive linemen were honored in the All-Big Ten voting, the most for the program at the position group in a year since joining the Big Ten. That included OL Hollin Pierce being rated as the No. 6 tackle in the conference by Pro Football Focus, with OL Bryan Felter (guard) and OL Gus Zilinskas (center) also claiming recognition.

PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE

• Before coming back to RU in 2020, Vallone served as defensive line coach at Fordham for two seasons (2018-19). That included working as associate head coach in 2019. In his first year with the Rams, he guided a line that helped the defense lead the Patriot League and rank 20th in the NCAA FCS in tackles-for-loss (7.5/game). The team then placed 36th nationally with 2.42 sacks per game in 2019.
• Vallone joined the Fordham staff after spending two years at St. Lawrence University as the team's defensive coordinator (2016-17). He also coached the linebackers in 2017 and the defensive line in 2016. In 2017, Vallone saw LB Skyler Williamson earn Liberty Conference Defensive Player of the Year and First Team All-Region honors along with three other players who earned All-Liberty Conference accolades. The St. Lawrence defense led the Liberty Conference in fourth down conversions (seventh in the NCAA), tackles-for-loss (12th in the NCAA), first downs defense (41st in the NCAA), third down conversions and sacks.
• In 2016, the Saints' defense finished as one of the most dominant in program history. St. Lawrence was the top-ranked team in the Liberty League in 13 defensive categories and ranked in the top 10 in the nation in five categories, including scoring defense (second, 11.0 points allowed per game), defensive touchdowns (third, six in 10 games), first downs defense (seventh overall and third among teams that played more than eight games, 129 allowed), red zone defense (seventh, .500) and tackles-for-loss (ninth, 9.1 per game). Among the Saints' defensive leaders was DL Chyron Brown-Wallace, the most decorated St. Lawrence football player in nearly 35 years. He earned the highest vote total among NCAA Division III athletes for the Cliff Harris Award, which recognizes the best small college defensive player in the nation. A two-time American Football Coaches Association First Team All-American, Brown-Wallace was the 2016 Liberty League Defensive Player of the Year and earned D3football.com All-American honors.
• Vallone started his coaching career as St. Lawrence's defensive line coach in 2014 before spending 2015 as Rutgers' assistant defensive line coach.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

• Vallone was part of three RU teams that claimed bowl championships in five seasons (2008-12) with the program.
• A four-year starter for the Scarlet Knights at defensive tackle, Vallone was a First Team All-Big East selection and the school's Best Rush Lineman Award winner as a senior after posting a team-high 12.5 tackles-for-loss. He finished his career with 195 tackles and made 51 consecutive starts.

BOB FRASER

SENIOR DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Bob Fraser is in his sixth season back at Rutgers and 16th overall "On the Banks" in 2025. Bringing over 35 seasons of coaching experience, Fraser is in his fourth stint on the Scarlet Knights' staff. He first joined the program in 1987 as a graduate assistant before returning from 2006-11 in various capacities, including defensive coordinator. Fraser served as the RU linebackers coach in 2014 and 2015. Overall, Fraser has been part of nine Rutgers bowl trips, including six wins.

RUTGERS: 2020-PRESENT

• Fraser spent the past two seasons as senior analyst in helping the Scarlet Knights to back-to-back winning seasons and bowl appearances.
• Fraser served as senior advisor in 2022, a season that saw Rutgers post its best mark in total defense in 10 years. He coached linebackers in 2020 and 2021.
• Fraser saw LB Olakunle Fatukasi (Buccaneers) and LB Tyreek Maddox-Williams (Chargers) both signed by NFL teams. Fatukasi earned Third Team All-Big Ten honors and was picked as national semifinalist for the Butkus Award twice.
• Rutgers gained 19 turnovers in 2020, most in a season since 2012, and 10 more than forced the previous season. That included at least one takeaway in eight games, multiple in four games and at least four two times. RU established a plus five turnover margin, its best in a Big Ten season.
• Rutgers led the Big Ten and ranked No. 11 nationally with 7.8 tackles-for-loss per game.
• Fraser helped Fatukasi, one of 16 national semifinalists for the Butkus Award, earn First Team All-Big Ten after leading the conference with 101 tackles. He became the first Rutgers defensive player to garner First Team All-Big Ten accolades, with his average of 11.2 tackles per game ranking ninth nationally, first in the league and most by a Scarlet Knight since 1999. He also ranked second in the Big Ten with 11.0 tackles-for-loss, adding two fumble recoveries, one forced fumble and a pass breakup.
• LB Tyshon Fogg collected honorable mention All-Big Ten after posting 70 tackles with 4.5 for loss.

RECENT EXPERIENCE

• Fraser spent the 2019 season as a coaching assistant for the New England Patriots, his third year in the NFL, after working 2016-18 as a quality control coach on the same staff as head coach Greg Schiano at Ohio State. The Buckeyes won two Big Ten championships in those three seasons, capping with a victory in the 2019 Rose Bowl.

RUTGERS: 2014-15

• Fraser was part of Rutgers' transition to the Big Ten, helping the team win eight games and the Quick Lane Bowl in 2014.
• LB Steve Longa led the team with 102 tackles and added 117 the following season to finish with 342 career stops, eighth most in program history. Longa signed with the Detroit Lions.

TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS

• Fraser spent two seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, including serving as the assistant defensive coordinator in 2013. During that season, the Buccaneers placed two players on the Associated Press All-Pro First Team in DT Gerald McCoy and OLB Lavonte David, a first for the franchise since 2005.

JOHN McNULTY

SENIOR OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

John McNulty returned to Rutgers football in 2025 and serves as senior offensive assistant. This marks the veteran coach's third stint in Piscataway, as he previously served on the staff from 2004-08 and from 2018-19, including as offensive coordinator.

COACHING HISTORY

2025-present: Rutgers (senior offensive assistant)

Children: Daughters, Abigail, Allison, Megan and Kaitlyn

RECENT EXPERIENCE

• McNulty, who has over 30 years of experience, spent the last two seasons as an analyst at Alabama. That included a win in the 2023 SEC Championship Game and an appearance in the College Football Playoff's Rose Bowl.
• McNulty worked as offensive coordinator at Boston College (2022), tight ends coach at Notre Dame (2020-21) and as an analyst at Penn State (2019) in recent years.

RUTGERS

• McNulty piloted one of the most prolific offenses in Rutgers history in 2007, with the Scarlet Knights becoming the first, and still only, FBS program to have a 3,000-yard passer (Mike Teel), 2,000-yard rusher (Ray Rice) and a pair of 1,000-yard receivers (Kenny Britt and Tiquan Underwood) in the same season. The Scarlet Knights set school records for scoring (426), first downs (294) and total offense (5,841) in 2007.
• McNulty was part of four bowl teams during his first five-year tenure at Rutgers, including three straight wins at the Texas, International and PapaJohns.com Bowls.
• McNulty returned to Rutgers in 2018 and served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

NFL EXPERIENCE

• McNulty spent three seasons with the Arizona Cardinals, coaching wide receivers from 2009-11, including All-Pro receiver Larry Fitzgerald, and quarterbacks in 2012. He later joined the Tampa Bay Buccaneers staff for the 2013 season, coaching rookie quarterback Mike Glennon, who earned All-Rookie honors.
• McNulty served as quarterbacks coach for two seasons with the Tennessee Titans from 2014-15 under his former Arizona Cardinals coach Ken Whisenhunt. While with the Titans, he mentored second overall pick Marcus Mariota for the 2015 season. Mariota went on to earn All-Rookie honors after finishing the season with the highest passer rating among rookies (91.5). He posted four games with at least three touchdown passes in 2015, tying Peyton Manning (1998) for the most ever by an NFL rookie despite missing four games. Mariota also broke the franchise record for most passing touchdowns (19), completions (230) and passing yards (2,818) by a rookie.
• McNulty then took on the role of tight ends coach for the Los Angeles Chargers in 2016-17, coaching Hall of Famer Antonio Gates.
• Prior to his first stint with the Scarlet Knights, McNulty spent six seasons as an NFL assistant coach with the Jacksonville Jaguars from 1998-2002 and the Dallas Cowboys in 2003 with Hall of Fame head coach Bill Parcells. During his six-year stint, McNulty helped his teams advance to three playoff berths. While in Jacksonville, he coached two of the NFL's top receiving duos in Jimmy Smith and Keenan McCardell. In 2000 and 2001, the pair combined for 390 receptions and 4,903 yards, while Smith earned All-Pro honors both seasons.

SPENCER BROWN

DIRECTOR OF SPORTS PERFORMANCE

Spencer Brown is in his first season as the Scarlet Knights' director of sports performance in 2025. The New Port Richey, Florida, native arrived in January and took over leadership of the Rutgers football strength and conditioning program in June.

COACHING HISTORY

2025-present: Rutgers (director of sports performance)
2025: Rutgers (assistant strength and conditioning)
2016-24: Dartmouth (director of strength, speed and conditioning)
2014-16: Dartmouth (head strength and conditioning coach for football)

THE BROWN FILE

Hometown: New Port Richey, Fla.
Alma Mater: Lafayette, 2009
Wife: Krystal
Children: Son, Gavin; Daughter, Faith

DARTMOUTH

• Brown spent 11 seasons at Dartmouth, including as director of strength, speed and conditioning the last nine. While leading the strength and conditioning department, he was also a member of the football coaching staff and worked closely with nordic skiing and both men's and women's tennis. The role involved developing individualized year-round strength and conditioning programs for each sport in consultation with the coaching staffs, athletic trainers and student-athletes.
• In addition, duties included supervising six assistant coaches, as well as strength and conditioning interns, plus working with peak performance to help give the athletes the tools needed to be successful on the field and in the classroom.
• The Big Green won consistently on the gridiron during Brown's tenure in New Hampshire, claiming five Ivy League championships and posting eight top-two finishes overall.

PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE

• Brown was the first-ever head strength and conditioning coach at Moravian College in Pennsylvania for two and a half years, during which time the Greyhounds saw increased performance level of their athletes across the board. He was also responsible for all administrative duties required to operate a fitness center, including managing a full staff and student-workers.
• Brown started as the assistant director of sports performance at his alma mater, Lafayette College, where his primary role was the football skill position players and the first-year football players. He oversaw the daily operation of a 4,000-square foot facility, as well as 14 other Leopard sport teams.
• A certified "Strength and Conditioning Specialist" through the National Strength and Conditioning Association, Brown holds a master's degree in exercise science with a concentration in sports performance and injury prevention.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

• A 2009 graduate of Lafayette with a degree in anthropology and sociology, Brown played linebacker as a four-year letterwinner on the Leopards' football team. He earned a spot on the 2008 Patriot League Academic Honor Roll and was a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Brown graduated from J.W. Mitchell High School in New Port Richey. He was a second-team all-state selection at the "athlete" position in football and two-time state qualifier in weightlifting. Brown was the St. Petersburg Times and Tampa Tribune Player of the Year.

PISCATAWAY, N.J. – Rutgers football (1-0) opened its 2024 season with a 44-7 win over Howard (0-1) Thursday night at SHI Stadium. RB Kyle Monangai matched his career high with 165 yards and became the 16th player in school history to surpass 2,000 career rushing yards.

QB Athan Kaliakmanis threw three touchdowns in his Scarlet Knight debut, finishing with 147 yards through the air and another 43 on the ground. RB Samuel Brown V, TE Kenny Fletcher and WR Dymere Miller all recorded scoring receptions in the win. Monangai and RB Antwan Raymond both reached the end zone on the ground.

On defense, LB Dariel Djabome produced a career-high 14 tackles in his first collegiate start. DB Eric Rogers tallied the first takeaway of the season thanks to a 52-yard interception return for a touchdown to open the scoring.

PISCATAWAY, N.J. – Rutgers football (2-0) defeated Akron (0-2), 49-17, on Saturday afternoon at SHI Stadium. RB Kyle Monangai rushed for a career-high 208 yards and three touchdowns to help the Scarlet Knights secure the non-conference victory.

QB Athan Kaliakmanis finished with 14 completions for 230 yards and three touchdowns, finding WR KJ Duff, TE Kenny Fletcher and WR Chris Long on scoring plays. Monangai averaged 7.7 yards per carry during his career outing, which included a career-long 62-yard rush in the first half. With his 208 yards on the ground, Monangai became the first player since 2014 to go over 200 yards for Rutgers in a single game.

Saturday marked the first time in program history Rutgers has scored 40 or more points in each of its first two games, as the Scarlet Knights produced touchdowns on six consecutive drives to pull away from the Zips.

RU's defense held the Zips to three points in the first half and registered a takeaway in its 10th consecutive game dating back to last season. DL Malcolm Ray and DB Eric Rogers both registered sacks, DB Shaquan Loyal picked up his first interception of the season and DB Robert Longerbeam batted down two passes.

2024 NOTES, RECORDS & RANKINGS

TEAM

• Rutgers won seven games in the regular season for the first time since 2014.
• Rutgers won a program-best four Big Ten games.
• Rutgers secured a winning season in back-to-back years for the first time since 2011-12.
• Rutgers earned bowl eligibility in consecutive seasons for the first time since four straight appearances from 2011-14.
• Rutgers earned an invitation to the Rate Bowl, its 13th all-time bowl appearance and ninth under head coach Greg Schiano. The game drew an audience of 3.5 million on ESPN.
• Rutgers won three games and posted a winning record (3-1) in November for the first time since 2011.
• Rutgers saw 12 different players recognized in the All-Big Ten voting, highlighted by RB Kyle Monangai (first), OL Hollin Pierce (second) and LB Dariel Djabome (third) earning spots on the first-three teams.
• Monangai (fourth team) and Pierce (honorable mention) both earned All-America status by Phil Steele. This marks the first time since 2011 the Scarlet Knights had multiple players recognized nationally postseason (non-freshmen teams). Monangai became the first RU running back since Ray Rice (2007) to claim All-America status, while Pierce is the first offensive lineman honored from the program since Anthony Davis (2009). The two selections make it 20 players overall to garner All-America at Rutgers under Schiano.
• Rutgers sent five players to the NFL Scouting Combine (DB Robert Longerbeam, Monangai, Pierce, LB Tyreem Powell, LS Austin Riggs), the most since six invitations in 2013.
• Rutgers won at Virginia Tech for the first time in program history, secured wins over Washington and Minnesota for the first time and had its largest margin of victory over Michigan State (27) in series history. In addition, the 17 po=ints allowed against Maryland were the fewest permitted in the 11 Big Ten meetings of the series.
• The victory over Minnesota marked the 16th time under Schiano the Scarlet Knights rallied from a fourth-quarter deficit to win, fifth time since 2020.
• Rutgers started 4-0 for the first time since 2012 and first time as a Big Ten member.
• Rutgers went 3-1 in non-conference play and is 13-2 in such games since Schiano returned.
• The attendance of 54,079 in the win over Washington marked the second-highest in stadium history. The Homecoming game versus UCLA was also a sellout (53,726) to make it nine games with an attendance of at least 52,454 over the past three years.
• Rutgers led the Big Ten and ranked third nationally with just nine turnovers lost. The nine total turnovers and two lost fumbles set program records for fewest conceded in a season, while the seven interceptions tied for the fewest since totaling four in 1964. RU finished as one of four teams nationally and only in the Big Ten with two or less fumbles lost. The Scarlet Knights had no more than one turnover in 12-of-13 games and had five games with none. Since 2020, RU is 17-2 when not committing a turnover in a game.
• Rutgers finished the season with a plus-four turnover margin. The Scarlet Knights won or neutralized the turnover battle in 11-of-13 games.

HOLLIN PIERCE

• Rutgers ranked 25th nationally and fourth in the Big Ten with an average time of possession of 31:45 per game. That included 13 quarters possessing the ball for at least 10 minutes, seven such fourth quarters.
• Rutgers scored 376 points, the most for the team in the Big Ten era, most since 2008 and fourth-most in a season in program history.
Most Points Scored (Season)
> 1. 2007: 426
> 2. 2006: 387
> 3. 2008: 377
> 4. 2024: 376
• Rutgers ranked fifth nationally with only four penalties against and 34.15 yards of penalty yardage per game. The 34.15 yards were the fewest for the team in the Big Ten era and fewest since 1987 (33.6). That included five or fewer penalties charged against in 11-of-13 games.
• Rutgers, "The Birthplace of College Football," has played 1,421 games in program history on record dating back to 1869, the most in the sport.
• Rutgers posted a program-record 3.31 GPA as a team during the fall semester. Fifty student-athletes were named to the 2024 Fall Academic All-Big Ten listing. OL Reggie Sutton earned his sixth career selection, while DB Flip Dixon, OL Bryan Felter, TE Victor Konopka, DB Robert Longerbeam and DB Joe Lusardi each received their fourth honor.
• A program-record seven student-athletes named on the National Football Foundation (NFF) Hampshire Honor Society list: DB Flip Dixon, TE Victor Konopka, DL Aaron Lewis, DB Robert Longerbeam, DB Joe Lusardi, LS Austin Riggs and OL Reggie Sutton.

OFFENSE

• Rutgers averaged 28.9 points per game for the season, the best mark since posting 29.0 in 2008. The Scarlet Knights placed sixth in the Big Ten in scoring offense, the team's best placement since joining the conference.
• Rutgers scored at least 30 points in three consecutive Big Ten games for the first time since joining the conference (Maryland, Illinois, Michigan State). Adding the 41 scored in the Rate Bowl, the Scarlet Knights posted at least 30 points in four straight games for the first time since a streak of five in a row in 2008 and had 40 points in consecutive games against FBS opponents for the first time since the last two games of the 2005 season. In addition, Rutgers scored at least 40 points in each of the first two games of the season for the first time in program history in the wins over Howard and Akron.
• Rutgers finished with a 2,000-yard passer (QB Athan Kaliakmanis), a 1,000-yard rusher (RB Kyle Monangai) and two 600-yard receivers (WR Dymere Miller and WR Ian Strong) for the first time since 2007. The Scarlet Knights were one of just five Big Ten teams to achieve the feat in 2024, joining Ohio State, Oregon, Penn State and Washington.
• Rutgers posted 4,975 yards of total offense, fourth-most in a season in program history and best total since 2014. That included six games with at least 400 yards, the most in a season since having seven such games in 2014.
Most Yards Total Offense (Season)
> 1. 2007: 5,841
> 2. 2008: 5,179
> 3. 2014: 5,070
> 4. 2024: 4,975
• Rutgers rushed for 2,279 yards, its best total in the Big Ten era, most since 2007 and 10th-highest mark for a season in program history. The 175.3 rushing yards per game ranked third in the Big Ten for the team's best placement since joining the league.
• Rutgers rushed for 28 touchdowns, the team's best mark in the Big Ten era and most since also reaching the mark in 2007. The total, which ranked No. 6 in the Big Ten, is four shy of the school record of 32 rushing touchdowns in 1961.
• Rutgers passed for 2,696 yards, 11th-most in a season in program history, best mark since 2014 and 908 more yards than in 2023. The Scarlet Knights ranked fourth in Big Ten with 12.7 yards per completion.
• Rutgers totaled 293 first downs, second-most in a season in program history and most in the Big Ten era. The season-high 30 first downs gained versus Illinois marked the most versus an FBS opponent since totaling 31 against Kansas in 2015.
Most First Downs (Season)
> 1. 2007: 294
> 2. 2024: 293
• Rutgers converted on third down at a clip of 44 percent, the team's best mark in the Big Ten era, first time reaching 40 percent since 2008 and best percentage since 2007 (45 percent). The season-high 11 third-down conversions at USC matched the program high for a game under head coach Greg Schiano.
• Rutgers ranked No. 21 nationally with just 4.38 tackles-for-loss permitted per game. That included five games allowing no sacks.
• In Big Ten-only statistics, Rutgers set team records for most total offense (351.2) and rushing yards (149.8) per game. The average of 24.0 points per game is second behind the 26.7 in 2020.

• Rutgers set Big Ten game records for yards per play (7.2) against UCLA, first downs (30) versus Illinois and plays run (89) at USC.
• The offensive line earned a spot on the Joe Moore Award Midseason Honor Roll for the first time. The Joe Moore Award annually honors the top offensive line in college football based on toughness, effort, teamwork, consistency, technique and finishing.
• OL Hollin Pierce was named Second Team All-Big Ten by the coaches and media to claim the distinction as the first RU offensive lineman to earn a spot on one of the three All-Big Ten teams. OL Gus Zilinskas earned honorable mention for the second time, while OL Kwabena Asamoah was selected for the first time.
• QB Athan Kaliakmanis ranked fifth in the Big Ten with 12.7 yards per completion, sixth with 18 passing touchdowns and seventh with 226.7 yards of total offense per game. He threw for 2,696 yards to become first Rutgers quarterback to reach 2,000 yards in a season since Chris Laviano in 2015. He became the fifth player in program history to record 200 or more completions in a season.

• Monangai became the first Scarlet Knight to earn First Team All-Big Ten on offense in both the coaches and media votes. He had at least 100 rushing yards in 6-of-11 games played, a touchdown in nine different games and at least 18 carries in all games played. The 208 rushing yards against Akron marked the first 200-yard game by a Scarlet Knight since Josh Hicks in 2014 and tied for 10th-most in a game in program history, while the three rushing scores versus UCLA matched the Rutgers individual Big Ten game record. He had a career-high 31 carries at Michigan State to set the Rutgers individual Big Ten game record, which marked the first 30-carry game by an RU player since Justin Goodwin in 2013.
• RB Antwan Raymond scored eight rushing touchdowns, the most in a season for a Rutgers true freshman in program history and second-most nationally among Power Four true freshmen. That included three in the Rate Bowl, second-most in a bowl game in program history, in a 113-yard rushing performance. He also reached the end zone twice at Michigan State to earn Big Ten Freshman of the Week, becoming the third Scarlet Knight to garner the honor. He totaled 457 rushing yards overall to lead all Big Ten true freshmen and rank fifth among Power Four players in his class in 2024.
• WR Dymere Miller recorded 59 receptions, the ninth-most in a season in program history, and 757 receiving yards, the most by a Scarlet Knight since Leonte Carroo in 2015. He had at least two catches in all 13 games, including a season-high 11 receptions at USC to set a Rutgers individual Big Ten game record and become the first RU player to reach double-digit receptions in a game since Mohamed Sanu in 2011. His 4.8 catches per game ranked 12th in the Big Ten.
• WR Ian Strong scored a receiving touchdown in four straight games, the first Scarlet Knight to achieve the feat since Mark Harrison in 2010. He had a team-leading five receiving touchdowns overall, all in the red zone, to rank No. 13 in the Big Ten, while placing No. 10 in the league with 15.72 yards per reception.
• WR KJ Duff ranked ninth in the Big Ten with 15.74 yards per reception and placed fourth in the league among true freshmen with 425 receiving yards.
• Rutgers had two receivers rank inside the top 20 in the Big Ten in receiving yards for the first time since joining the league (No. 12 Miller, 757 & No. 18 Strong, 676). The duo each had two 100-yard receiving games. In addition, Duff and Strong each placed in the top 10 of the Big Ten for yards per reception, the first time a pair of Scarlet Knights achieved the feat in the same season in the Big Ten era.
• The running back position group had no fumbles for the season.

DEFENSE
• Rutgers held three of the four opponents in November under 20 points.
• Rutgers held five opponents to 15 first downs or less for the season.
• Rutgers held opponents scoreless on eight trips to the red zone, ranking No. 7 in the Big Ten in red zone defense.
• Rutgers recorded two safeties on sacks, last posting multiple safeties in a season in 2005.
• Rutgers allowed a season-low 35 rushing yards against Minnesota, its second-best performance in a Big Ten game since joining the conference (12 versus Northwestern in 2023).
• LB Dariel Djabome ranked fifth in Big Ten with 8.1 tackles per game. He totaled 105 tackles overall, the fifth-most in a season under head coach Greg Schiano, to become the first Scarlet Knight to reach 100 tackles in a season since Olakunle Fatukasi (101) in 2020. He led the team in tackles in 7-of-13 games and had five games in double figures, including a high of 14 stops in the wins over Howard and Minnesota.
Most Tackles (Season Under Head Coach Greg Schiano)
> 1. Khaseem Greene (2011): 141
> 2. Gary Brackett (2002): 130
> 3. Courtney Greene (2005): 116
> 4. Antonio Lowery (2010): 108
> 5. Dariel Djabome (2024): 105
• DL Kyonte Hamilton and DL Jordan Walker tied for the team lead with four sacks each, while DL Aaron Lewis added three. Overall, 11 different players recorded at least one sack.
• Lewis became the third Scarlet Knight to merit All-Big Ten recognition in three different seasons, joining Christian Izien (2020-22) and Adam Korsak (2018-22).
• LB Tyreem Powell led the roster with 201 career tackles.
• DB Robert Longerbeam led the Big Ten with 13 passes defended (11 breakups, two interceptions) for the season and finished third among rostered 2024 FBS players with 42 career passes defended (37 breakups, five interceptions). He had eight career games with multiple passes defended.
• Longerbeam joined DB Shaquan Loyal for the team lead with two interceptions.
• DB Eric Rogers recorded a pick-six against Howard, the 63rd non-offensive touchdown scored under Schiano and 12th since 2020.
• DB Kaj Sanders became the sixth true freshman to start the season opener under Schiano and just the second on defense, joining Courtney Greene in 2005.

SPECIAL TEAMS
• Rutgers led the Big Ten and ranked seventh nationally with 16.5 yards per punt return. That included a 67-yard return by WR Christian Dremel in the Rate Bowl versus Kansas State, tied for the 10th-longest punt return in program history and longest since Janarion Grant had a 69-yard return in 2016. Dremel ranked sixth in the Big Ten with 150 punt return yards for the season.
• Rutgers blocked two punts at Nebraska, the 15th time under head coach Greg Schiano blocking multiple kicks in a game. The Scarlet Knights have blocked 43 punts and 73 kicks overall under Schiano. Rutgers leads the nation with 10 blocked punts over the last three seasons.
Most Blocked Punts (2022-24)
> T1. Rutgers: 10
> T1. Notre Dame: 10
> 3. Bowling Green: 9
> T4. South Carolina: 8
> T4. UNLV: 8
• PK Jai Patel made 13 consecutive field goals to end the season to match the program record, also achieved by Alex Falcinelli in 1980. He went 15-for-19 overall (78.9 percent), tied for the third-most accurate season in program history by percentage (minimum 15 attempts) and tied for ninth-most makes for a season. That includes going 15-of-17 on attempts inside 50 yards. He owns two of the top four seasons by percentage in program history.
Field Goal Percentage (Season, Minimum 15 Attempts)
> 1. Jai Patel (2023): 83.3 (15-18)
> 2. Alex Falcinelli (1982): 80.0 (12-15)
> T3. Jai Patel (2024): 78.9 (15-19)
> T3. Kennan Startzell (1978): 78.9 (15-19)
• For his career, Patel moves into first place in program history in field goal percentage (minimum 30 attempts), converting 30-of-37 attempts (81.1 percent). He is the seventh player in program history to reach 30 career makes.
Field Goal Percentage (Career, Minimum 30 Attempts)
> 1. Jai Patel (2023-24): 81.1 (30-37)
> 2. Alex Falcinelli (1980-82): 77.6 (38-49)
> 3. Doug Giesler (1986-89): 77.1 (27-35)
Field Goal Makes (Career)
> 6. Tom Angstadt (1983-85): 36
> 7. Jai Patel (2023-24): 30
• Patel went 4-for-4 on field goals at Michigan State to set a career high for makes in a game, finishing the year with four games with multiple makes. It was the first time a Scarlet Knight converted four field goals in a game since San San Te at Syracuse in 2011. The four connections set a Rutgers individual Big Ten game record, one shy of the overall school game record of five established by Tom Angstadt in 1984 versus Cincinnati.
• P Jakob Anderson forced 29 fair catches on 50 attempts. He posted an average punt of 42.6 yards, eighth-highest in a season in program history. The mark also moves him into third in the school record book for career average (minimum 40 attempts).
• PK Jack Scullion recorded a touchback on 34-of-70 kickoffs. That included a high of six into the end zone in games versus Kansas State and Maryland.
• LS Austin Riggs handled all snaps for field goals, extra points and punts throughout the season. He became the first long snapper in program history to earn all-conference recognition (coaches & media honorable mention) in the Big Ten's first year honoring the position.

PARTICIPATION
• WR Christian Dremel tied the school record with 58 games played for Rutgers.
Games Played (Career)

"Old" Rutgers Stadium

Dedicated on November 5, 1938 at the Rutgers-Princeton game, the Stadium had its first game two weeks earlier as Rutgers hosted Hampden-Sydney. The season finale against Lafayette was the third game in the Stadium. Rutgers won all three contests and did not lose at the site until the sixth game in 1940, a 7-6 loss to Lafayette. Rutgers won the first 13 Stadium games, including seven straight in 1939.

Years	Record
1938-1992	168-53-4

Giants Stadium

Rutgers played the first college game at the venue in 1976 and used the NFL stadium as a "home away from home," including an appearance in the 1978 Garden State Bowl.

Year	Record
1976-1996	20-28

SHI Stadium

Built on the site of the "Old" Rutgers Stadium on the Busch Campus in Piscataway. The name became High Point Solutions Stadium in 2011, HighPoint.com Stadium in 2018 and SHI Stadium in 2019.

NOV. 6, 1869: THE FIRST GAME

THE FIRST GAME

Rutgers and Princeton played the first game of intercollegiate football on Nov. 6, 1869, on a plot of ground where the present-day Rutgers gymnasium now stands in New Brunswick, N.J. Rutgers won that first game, 6-4.

The game was played with two teams of 25 men each under rugby-like rules, but like modern football, it was "replete with surprise, strategy, prodigies of determination and physical prowess," to use the words of one of the Rutgers players.

At 3 p.m. on that memorable afternoon, the 50 competitors and about 100 spectators gathered on the field. To distinguish themselves from the bareheaded visitors, 50 Rutgers students, including players, donned scarlet-colored scarves which they converted into turbans.

Events leading up to the game were described by John W. Herbert, Rutgers '72, who was one of the players: "To appreciate this game to the fullest you must know something of its background," Herbert wrote in 1933. "The two colleges were, and still are, of course, about 20 miles apart. The rivalry between them was intense. For years each had striven for possession of an old Revolutionary cannon, making night forays and lugging it back and forth time and again. Not long before the first football game, the canny Princetonians had settled this competition in their own favor by ignominiously sinking the gun in several feet of concrete. In addition to this, I regret to report, Princeton had beaten Rutgers in baseball by the harrowing score of 40-2. Rutgers longed for a chance to square things."

A challenge for the game was issued by Rutgers. Three games were to be played that year. The first, played at New Brunswick, was won by Rutgers. Princeton won the second game, but cries of "over-emphasis" prevented the third game in football's first year when faculties of both institutions protested on the grounds that the games were interfering with student studies. An analytical account of the game appeared in the November, 1869 issue of The Targum, Rutgers' undergraduate newspaper.

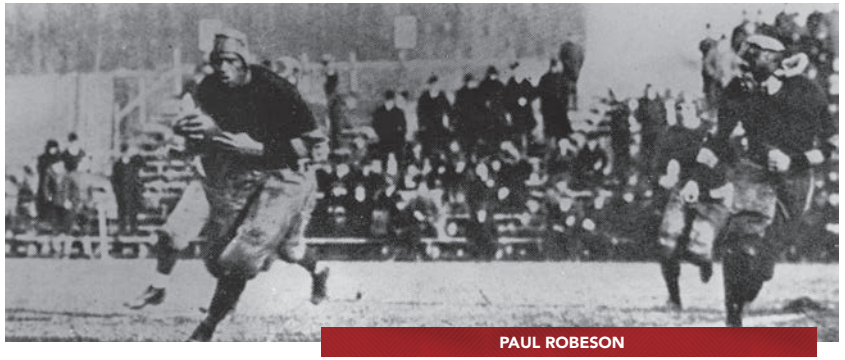
"To describe the varying fortunes of the match, game by game, would be a waste of labor for every game was like the one before," wrote the student reporter. "There was the same headlong running, wild shouting, and frantic kicking.

"To sum up, Princeton had the most muscle, but didn't kick very well, and wanted organization. They evidently don't like to kick the ball on the ground. Our men, on the other hand, though comparatively weak, ran well, and kicked well throughout. But their great point was the organization, for which great praise is due to the captain. The right men were always in the right place."

One of the Princeton players, William Preston Lane, in 1933 contended in a newspaper interview that Rutgers "ran us Princeton men out of town. I never found out why they did that," he related. "But we don't ask any questions. When we saw them coming after us, we ran to the outskirts of New Brunswick and got into our carriages and wagons and went away as fast as we could."

Lane's contention is refuted in The Targum account. "After the match the players had an amicable "feed together," the paper reported. "At 8 o'clock our guests went home, in high good spirits, thirsting to beat us next time, if they can."

Regardless of what actually happened after the first game, football was here to stay. Rutgers got Columbia University started in the grid sport the following season and in a few years most of the colleges and universities in the East were represented on the gridiron.



PAUL ROBESON

THE HISTORY OF RUTGERS FOOTBALL

Parts of this article were written by John Bruns, former longtime sports writer for the Home News and the Easton Times-Express.

1869-1912: The Birthplace of College Football

When Rutgers defeated Princeton in 1869, the setting was quite different than it is today. The game was contested on a field along College Avenue in New Brunswick. There were not tens of thousands of cheering fans in a multi-million-dollar stadium. There was no manicured grass field or electronic scoreboard. There was no elaborate athletic equipment or television cameras. But on that fall day in 1869, those students established a tradition of quality football programs, competitiveness and school spirit that continues at Rutgers, the birthplace of intercollegiate football.

Over 150 years later, Rutgers has had many historical moments, outstanding athletes and memorable triumphs over the years.

However, those historic moments were difficult to predict during the early years when intercollegiate football scheduling was inconsistent. For example, Rutgers won six of 10 games in 1882, but played only one game in 1885. Similarly, the Scarlet Knights went 8-6 in 1891, but two years later played only four games. By the early 1900s, scheduling had become more consistent and football became more popular across the country.

The eight wins of 1891 were not matched until Rutgers went 8-1 in 1947 with one of the most successful teams of coach Harvey Harman in the Golden Era immediately following World War II. That team, quarterbacked by Frank Burns, who would later become Rutgers' most successful coach, lost its opener to Columbia and then swept through eight-straight opponents.

1913-1925: 'A Tradition of Success Begins'

In 1913, coach George Foster Sanford began a tradition of success among Rutgers coaches in their inaugural year by leading his team to a 6-3 mark. He then flirted with two perfect seasons, improving the team to 7-1 in 1915 and 7-1-1 in 1917.

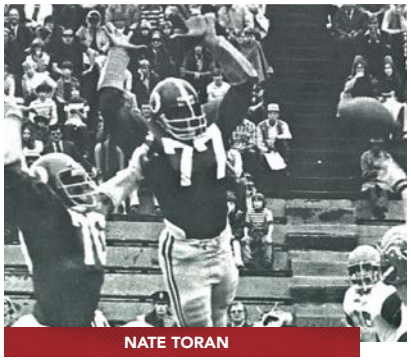
Those two seasons, which featured All-American Paul Robeson, were among Rutgers' best. The Scarlet Knights outscored opponents by an average of 44-3 in 1915 and 33-2 in 1917. Sanford, a member of Rutgers' Hall of Fame, also helped to introduce Rutgers to the New York metropolitan area, playing games at the Polo Grounds against teams like Notre Dame, Nebraska, Louisiana State and West Virginia. A few years later, in 1924, two-time All-America end and fullback Homer Hazel helped coach John Wallace continue the tradition of first-year coaching success, as Rutgers posted a 7-1-1 mark.

1925-1960: Making a Mark on the Collegiate Landscape

Harvey Harman also had a successful first season, going 7-1 in 1938, the year Rutgers dedicated the original Rutgers Stadium. Rutgers won the dedication game, 20-18, over Princeton.

Harman, however, was replaced by former coach Harry Rockafeller during World War II. His tenure included an 8-1 season in 1947 when Rutgers, dominated by WWII veterans, registered a combined record of 27-7 from 1945-48.

When John Steigman coached Rutgers from 1956-59, he brought back the single-wing formation to the Scarlet Knight offense, and led Rutgers to an 8-1 mark in 1958. The only loss of that season, 13-12 to the Quantico Marines, came when All-American tailback Billy Austin had to miss a game due to a broken hand.



NATE TORAN

1961-1972: RU's First Undefeated Season

Another first-year coach got off to an impressive start when John Bateman went 8-1 in 1960. That campaign was followed by Rutgers' first undefeated season in 1961, when the team went 9-0, capping the season with a fourth-quarter, 25-point comeback win over Columbia. That team included All-American center Alex Kroll, and was ranked 15th nationally. In his 11 seasons, Bateman led Rutgers to 73 wins in 124 games.

1973-1983: The Burns Era & 1976

In 1973, Frank Burns took the reins of Rutgers football and brought the program to new heights by building teams recognized for fundamentals and defense. Burns himself was also known as a fierce linebacker and won the Most Valuable Player Award in the 1949 College All-Star game, when he made 17 tackles against the New York Giants. The Burns' defenses were led by linebackers Ed Steward, Jim Hughes, Jim Dumont and defensive end Nate Toran. Burns' first team went 6-5, while running back "JJ" Jennings rushed for 1,353 yards and 21 touchdowns.

Over the next five seasons, Burns' teams won at least seven games each season, including a five-season stretch from 1975-79 when Rutgers' winning percentage was .803 with a record of 45-11. The jewel in the crown of Burns' tenure as Rutgers' coach was the 1976 season, when the team was perfect at 11-0, establishing the best season ever at Rutgers. During Burns' 11 seasons at Rutgers, the Scarlet Knights won nearly two-thirds of their games (78-44). He also took Rutgers to its first bowl appearance – the Garden State Bowl – at Giants Stadium against Arizona State in 1978.

Doubtless, the biggest win of the Burns era was the 13-7 upset of Tennessee on November 3, 1979 in Knoxville. Burns called it "the greatest of my coaching career."

1984-1989: Memorable Upsets

In 1984 when Dick Anderson was named head coach, a renewed commitment to football at Rutgers was backed by a $3 million state-funded package. Those funds helped finance the artificial surface practice fields, the practice "Bubble" and the Hale Center, which includes locker rooms, offices, a weight-training area and medical facilities for the football team.

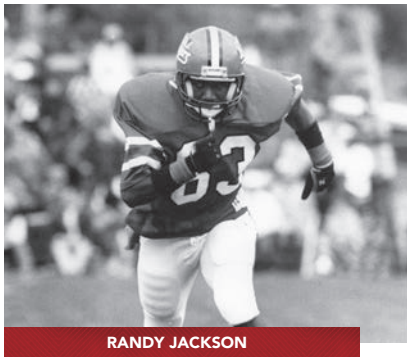
Anderson won seven of 10 games in his inaugural season. Other highlights of his years at Rutgers include upset wins over such nationally-ranked teams as Penn State and Michigan State, and a nationally-televised victory over Northwestern in the program's 1,000th game. Anderson's teams produced some of the most exciting players in Rutgers history, including record-breaking passer Scott Erney, career tackles leader Tyronne Stowe (533 from 1983-86) and football/baseball star Eric Young. Anderson's last game at Rutgers was a memorable one. It was the 1989 Emerald Isle Classic versus Pittsburgh in Dublin, Ireland, the first time a Rutgers team played overseas.

1990-1999: BIG EAST, Big Games

Doug Graber became the Scarlet Knights' 23rd coach in 1990 and placed an emphasis on recruiting the best talent in the state of New Jersey. His first recruiting class included three first team all-state selections and two second-team All-State selections among the 12 recruits from New Jersey.

Another major boost for Rutgers came in 1991 when Rutgers joined the Big East Conference and won its first league game over Boston College, 20-13. The team went 13-9 in its first two years in the league, including a 4-2 mark in 1992.

The 1994 season celebrated not only the 125 years of college football, but also the return of the newly-renovated and expanded Rutgers Stadium. The return was a welcomed one. The new stadium has been quite a different setting than that of the first college football game played 130 years ago, as the Scarlet Knights are playing for their own place in history as they continue the college football tradition that was born "On the Banks of the Old Raritan."



RANDY JACKSON

2000-2005: Schiano's Arrival

1998 Big East Coach of the Year Terry Shea concluded his tenure in 2000, as the Scarlet Knights opted to take the program in a different direction for the 2001 season. On Dec. 1, 2000, Director of Athletics Bob Mulcahy introduced the newest coach in the storied history of Rutgers football, Greg Schiano.

Schiano's first three recruiting classes rejuvenated the football program. In 2003, the team closed strong, upsetting Syracuse, 24-7, in the season finale. In 2004, before the largest crowd ever at the time at Rutgers Stadium (42,612), the Scarlet Knights defeated Michigan State, 19-14.

In 2005, Schiano coached Rutgers to its best record in over a decade, 7-5, and its first bowl bid since 1978. In a Wild West shootout staged at Chase Field in Phoenix, Rutgers fell just short, losing to Arizona State, 45-40, at the Insight Bowl Dec. 27.

2006: Pandemonium in Piscataway

In 2006, Schiano was named the National Coach of the Year and Big East Coach of the Year, as the Scarlet Knights earned their first national top-10 ranking in 2006 and won 11 games for the second time in school history. The campaign included a thrilling win 28-25 over No. 3/4 Louisville in front of a Thursday night national audience on ESPN. The comeback victory, with RU overcoming an 18-point deficit, became one of the turning points in modern Rutgers history as fans stormed the field to ignite "Pandemonium in Piscataway." Rutgers ended the season with a ranking of No. 12 in the national polls.

The success Rutgers achieved on the field was something Schiano envisioned from the first day he became the leader of the Scarlet Knights. At his introductory press conference, Schiano stated, "We're going to win at Rutgers and we're going to do it the right way." The 2006 season was complete with a convincing 37-10 victory over Kansas State in the Texas Bowl, the first bowl championship in school history. In addition, Brian Leonard was the recipient of the Draddy Trophy, known as the Academic Heisman.

PANDEMONIUM IN PISCATAWAY

2007-11: Sustained Success

The program won eight more games in 2007, including the highest ranked win in program history with a 30-27 victory over No. 2 USF. The season concluded with a dominating 52-30 victory over Ball State at the International Bowl in Toronto. Ray Rice ran for a school-record 280 rushing yards on the day to bring his career total to 4,926, a program high. An All-America pick and Heisman Trophy candidate, the running back also set the Scarlet Knight standards for attempts (910), touchdowns (49) and 100-yard games (25).

The 2008 campaign for the Scarlet Knights started slowly, but the program relied on a strong foundation built by Schiano and together as a family, Rutgers turned in seven consecutive victories to close out the season – culminating in a 29-23 victory over NC State in the PapaJohns.com Bowl. In 2009, the Scarlet Knights saw a number of milestones set en route to a record of 9-4, including a 45-24 victory over UCF in the St. Petersburg Bowl.

Prior to Schiano's arrival at Rutgers, the Scarlet Knights had never fielded a receiver who had gained 1,000 yards in a season. In 2009, Tim Brown became the fourth during his tenure to eclipse the mark. Brown also became the school's all-time leader in receiving touchdowns, passing RU's initial first round draft pick Kenny Britt. RU had two first-round picks in 2010, with Anthony Davis being the highest pick in program history at No. 11 by the San Francisco 49ers. Devin McCourty was selected at No. 27 by the New England Patriots.

While the results on the field did not favor Rutgers in 2010, the world was introduced to Eric LeGrand. The junior defensive tackle suffered a spinal cord injury at MetLife Stadium Oct. 16 against Army, but he did not let the condition bring him down. LeGrand has become a public figure and has raised countless dollars towards spinal cord research. He became the first Scarlet Knight in the 144 years of the football program to have his number retired during halftime of the Sept. 14, 2013 game against Eastern Michigan.

Rutgers returned to a bowl game in 2011 with a trip to the New Era Pinstripe Bowl. It was the second game of the season for the team at Yankee Stadium. The Scarlet Knights defeated Army during the regular season before beating Iowa State in the bowl game. Wide receiver Mohamed Sanu set the school record with 115 receptions on the season and was drafted in the third round of the NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals.

2012: Big East Champions

Following the season, head coach Greg Schiano took the head coaching job with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers to end an 11-year tenure. Kyle Flood, who joined the program in 2005, was promoted from the staff to the lead position several days later.

SEPT. 13, 2014: FIRST BIG TEN GAME

Flood made an immediate impact on the Rutgers program with a successful first season, as he led the school to its first Big East Championship in 2012, ending with a 9-4 record and 5-2 record in the league. Flood was named the Big East Coach of the Year. Flood's nine regular season victories were the most by any first-year coach in Rutgers history, as eight players garnered All-Big East honors. Khaseem Greene totaled 136 tackles to earn Big East Defensive Player of the Year for the second consecutive season, in addition to All-America status. The defensive unit was among the best in school history, ranking fourth nationally in scoring defense, tied for ninth in turnovers gained and 10th in total defense.

The year culminated with a trip to the Russell Athletic Bowl in Orlando to face Virginia Tech. In the offseason, Rutgers had 12 players signed by NFL teams, with a school-record seven selected in the NFL Draft. Rutgers came out of the gates in 2013 with a 4-1 start through September. In its first American Athletic Conference game, Rutgers won in triple overtime at SMU, 55-52. The 2013 New Era Pinstripe Bowl was the eighth bowl trip in nine years for Rutgers. The Scarlet Knights took on a ranked Notre Dame team inside a sold-out Yankee Stadium.

2014-19: Big Ten - Our New Home

On July 1, 2014, Rutgers officially joined the Big Ten Conference to usher in a new era in its deep and storied history. Support for the program reached new levels for the Big Ten opener, as a stadium-record 53,774 fans packed High Point Solutions Stadium for a game against Penn State. The Scarlet Knights won their first Big Ten game Oct. 4 over Michigan, with Kemoko Turay leaping to block a potential go-ahead field goal to seal the win and set off a storming of the field. The first road win in conference play came at Maryland after RU erased a 35-10 deficit to win 41-38 in the biggest comeback in school history, which would be matched a year later at Indiana. Senior quarterback Gary Nova threw for 347 yards on a career-best 28 completions in the 2014 win versus the Terrapins, ending his career as the all-time touchdown passing leader (73).

The first year in the Big Ten would be capped off with a convincing 40-21 win over North Carolina in the Quick Lane Bowl, hosted by the Detroit Lions. The Scarlet Knights went 8-5 and earned the Lambert-Meadowlands Trophy, emblematic of the top team in the East in the Bowl Subdivision.

In the second year in the Big Ten, Leonte Carroo closed his time as a Scarlet Knight with 10 receiving touchdowns to raise his school-record total to 29 over 31 games at the position. He averaged a score once every 4.2 receptions over his career, racking up 2,373 yards to join the list of standout wide receivers.

On Dec. 7, 2015, Chris Ash took over the program as the Scarlet Knights continued to establish a presence in the Big Ten and nationally. The program added a number of facility upgrades during his tenure, including the Marco Battaglia Football Practice Complex and the Brown Family Football Locker Room. Culminating a year-long celebration of the 150th anniversary of the first college football game, Rutgers marked the occasion on Nov. 6, 2019 with the Ringing of the Bells at Old Queens and the unveiling of a new plaque at the site celebrating its 6-4 win over Princeton.

2020: Welcome Back, Coach Schiano

With a change of leadership announced during the 2019 season, Rutgers announced the return of Schiano as head football coach on Dec. 3, 2019. The Scarlet Knights improved immediately during Schiano's first season back, as it matched its program high with three Big Ten victories during the pandemic-shortened 2020 campaign. Rutgers had 14 players recognized in the All-Big Ten voting, the most for the program since joining the league.

The progress continued in 2021 with the program's first 3-0 start since 2012. In Big Ten action, RU won two road games, a come-from-behind victory at Illinois that saw a late fourth-down stop and a five-touchdown triumph over Indiana, the program's largest margin of victory in a Big Ten game. With just nine days' notice, Schiano led the Scarlet Knights to the TaxSlayer Gator Bowl on New Year's Eve, battling top-20 Wake Forest in front of a national television audience of over three million on ESPN. In 2022, the victory over Temple marked the 79th win for head coach Greg Schiano to pass the legendary Frank Burns as the program's all-time wins leader. Rutgers also set an average home attendance record as interest in the program continues to rise. One of eight players to collect All-Big Ten honors, three-time captain P Adam Korsak earned First Team All-America status and won the Ray Guy Award as the nation's best punter. It marked the first on-field national award won by a Rutgers football player in program history.

The Scarlet Knights' upward trajectory in 2023 saw the team finish with seven wins, the program's first winning season since 2014. The campaign was capped by a 31-24 win over Miami in the Bad Boy Mowers Pinstripe Bowl. RB Kyle Monangai highlighted the offensive production with a Big Ten-best 1,262 rushing yards. Monangai, who left as the second leading rusher in the school record book, would follow that up by being named First Team All-Big Ten in 2024, a season that saw RU win a program-high four Big Ten games and appear in its ninth bowl game under Schiano.

The Scarlet Knights continue to develop players for the NFL, with Monangai, Robert Longerbeam and Kyonte Hamilton all being drafted, as over 100 Scarlet Knights have reached the NFL under Schiano.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

HOMER HAZEL (CLASS OF 1951)

He parted his dark hair down the middle, in the fashion of the day, and his deep-set eyes glowed with a competitive fire. Homer Hazel, Rutgers' first Hall of Famer, was, without doubt, the most versatile player the Scarlet ever produced. A natural athlete, Hazel excelled in various sports and was most successful as a track and field star. His speed and quickness served him well, for he once recovered his own kickoff in the enemy end zone for a touchdown. Homer led Rutgers to identical 7-1-1 records in his final two seasons, earning All-America laurels in each. He was an end in 1923, when the only Scarlet loss was to West Virginia (27-7). He had Rutgers on the way to an unbeaten finish in 1924 - this time as a hard-hitting fullback - when Bucknell untracked the Scarlet in the final game of the season, 12-7. During the 1924 campaign, Homer Hazel established school records for most points after a touchdown and longest completed pass. He could do it all. Carrying 226 pounds over a 5-foot-11 frame, Homer lettered in football, basketball, baseball and track at Rutgers. He later served as Athletic Director, football and basketball coach at the University of Mississippi for more than five years. He was a golf pro for four years, and a labor relations manager for more than 20 years. Hazel won his first letter in football at Rutgers in 1916. He left school because of a lack of funds. Hazel worked at various jobs and, at age 28, played football again at Rutgers. Walter Camp named him All-America end in 1923, All-America fullback in 1924. Hazel was born June 2, 1895, and died February 3, 1968.

GEORGE LITTLE (CLASS OF 1955)

A graduate of Ohio Wesleyan, George Little opened his coaching career at the University of Cincinnati and produced a two-year record of 10-8-0 before moving up the road to Oxford, Ohio, home of the Miami Redskins, in 1916. There, Little brought the Redskins their first Conference Championship and a 7-0-1 mark. After service in World War I, Little returned to Miami and directed the Red and White to yet another league crown and a three-year post-war record of 20-3-1. He also coached the Miami basketball and track teams, claiming a conference crown in the latter sport. The 1922 and 1923 seasons found Little at Michigan under head coach Fielding Yost, the man he replaced in 1924. That year, Little's Wolverines were 6-2. The next season, Little was in Wisconsin as the new Athletic Director and head coach of the Badgers, and he led his charges to a two-year mark of 11-3-2. His teams displayed imagination and strength on offense, a unique ruggedness on defense. Little wound up his collegiate career as the Athletic Director at Rutgers, and then served as executive secretary of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame.

GEORGE FOSTER SANFORD (CLASS OF 1971)

At the entrance to Rutgers Stadium, inscribed upon a bronze plaque, is a tribute to George Sanford. It was financed and installed by his players, the men "...he inspired to deeds beyond themselves." Undoubtedly, Sanford was an inspirational leader of men, a gentleman who excelled as both player and coach. Sanford played center on the 1891 and 1892 Yale teams which held each of their 26 opponents scoreless. Though he was never chosen to an All-America team, a 1927 poll named him the all-time Yale center. Sanford began his coaching career at Columbia (1899-1901), called in to revive the football program which had been abandoned after the 1891 campaign. His 1899 team defeated Yale for the first time ever, and it was at Columbia that Sanford developed the famous "Flying Hurdle Play" which saw Harold Weekes catapulted over the line of scrimmage. Moving to Rutgers (1913-23), Sanford had marked success as his club rolled to a 56-32-5 record. He was hailed as a "miracle worker" in 1917, after his Rutgers team beat the heavily-favored Newport Naval Reserve All-Stars, 14-0. Between his teams at Columbia and Rutgers, Sanford devoted his energy toward a successful insurance brokerage business.

HARVEY HARMAN (CLASS OF 1981)

Few men loved the game with the fervor of Harvey Harman, a huge man with a grand smile and a fierce dedication to the sport. A former president of the American Football Coaches Association, Harman received that group's Amos Alonzo Stagg Award, symbolic of outstanding service to the profession. It was not surprising that Harman achieved such acclaim, for he learned his football lessons from two of the game's mentors - Glenn "Pop" Warner and Jock Sutherland - while at Pittsburgh. Harman was a starting tackle for the Panthers before taking his first coaching assignment at Haverford. From there he moved on to Sewanee (the University of the South), Pennsylvania and Rutgers. It was at Rutgers that he had his greatest success, directing the Scarlet Knights to a 26-7-1 record before interrupting his career to serve in the U.S. Navy during World War II. Harman returned to Rutgers after the war and led the Scarlet Knights for another 10 seasons before accepting a position as Executive Director of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame, Inc. In that capacity, Harman became known as the goodwill ambassador for football, continuing to serve the game until his death in 1969. His career record lists a slate of 140-104-7.

PAUL ROBESON (CLASS OF 1995)

Paul Robeson played four years for the famous coach, G. Foster Sanford. Rutgers had a 22-6-3 record in that time. In 31 games, Rutgers scored 941 points to opponents' 191. Robeson was a powerful contributor to that record. Robeson was a two-time All-America end. Frank Menke named him All-America in 1917 and 1918. Walter Camp picked him in 1918. (Camp did not name an All-America team in 1917.) Following college, Robeson played three years as a pro - 1920 with Hammond, 1921 with Akron and 1922 with Milwaukee - in the American Professional Football League. He obtained his law degree in 1923. At Rutgers, Robeson was elected to Phi Beta Kappa and was valedictorian of the class of 1919. He won the college oratorical contest four-straight years and gave the commencement address at graduation. Robeson won 12 letters in four sports - four in football, three each in basketball and baseball, and two in track. He stood 6-3 in height and his weight was listed at 191 in early years, at 215 his senior season. This man of many talents became an actor, singer and lecturer. He was on Broadway and in the movies. His rich basso made his signature song "Ol' Man River" a classic. He starred in plays, such as "The Emperor Jones," "Othello," "Showboat," as well as many others, in the U.S., Europe and Africa. In 1925 he made a recording that sold 55,000 copies in four months. In 1972 he received the Whitney Young Memorial Award. Ebony Magazine called him "one of the 10 most important black men in American history." Paul Robeson was born April 9, 1898, in Princeton, N.J. His father, Rev. William Robeson, had escaped slavery in 1860 in North Carolina at age 15. His mother, Maria Bustill, was a teacher. When Paul was a high school senior, he won the statewide academic test and received a scholarship to Rutgers. In 1915, he was the third African-American to enter Rutgers and the first to play football. He died January 23, 1976. After his tenure at Rutgers, he became an accomplished actor, singer and lecturer, and was commemorated on a US postal stamp.

ALEX KROLL (CLASS OF 1997)

Alex Kroll, a consensus All-American center on Rutgers' first undefeated football team in 1961, is the Scarlet Knights' sixth inductee into the College Football Hall of Fame, as a part of the Class of 1997. Kroll, a 6-2, 228-pound center and linebacker, was a major force in Rutgers compiling a 17-1 record in his two years of play "On the Banks." In 1960, the Knights, under coach John Bateman, were 8-1 and followed up with the school's first undefeated campaign, going 9-0 in 1961. Team captain of the lauded 1961 squad, Kroll was a two-time first-team All-ECAC choice and won first-team All-America honors from the Associated Press, United Press International, Newspaper Enterprise Association, Look, and the American Football Coaches Association. Known as a "coach on the field," he was credited with making the quarterback sneak an offensive weapon as Rutgers scored seven touchdowns on that play in 1961 with Kroll clearing the way into the end zone for the signal-caller. He was also a first-team All-East choice by the AP in 1961 and played in the North-South game and the Senior Bowl. In 1960, he was an honorable mention All-American. Following his senior season, he was a second-round draft pick of the New York Titans, playing for one season in 1962. Kroll earned a BA in English Literature in 1962 and was a Henry Rutgers Scholar with a perfect grade point average in his major. He received a National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame Post-Graduate Scholarship in 1961. In 1986, he was awarded the Silver Anniversary Award from the National Collegiate Athletic Association for his collegiate achievements. IImmediately following his last game with the Titans, he joined the workforce at Young & Rubicam, the world's largest independent advertising agency, as a copywriter. After a succession of writing and supervisory jobs in the creative department, he was named executive vice president and worldwide creative director in 1970. He was named president and chief operating officer in 1982 and, four years later, Kroll became chairman of Young & Rubicam. He moved to Vermont upon retirement and passed away in 2024 at age 87.

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. – In its first postseason action in program history, Rutgers faced Arizona State at Giants Stadium in the inaugural Garden State Bowl in 1978. The Scarlet Knights pulled ahead in the first half on a touchdown by David Dorn and field goal from Kennan Startzell to take a 10-0 lead. However, the Sun Devils closed the gap just before the end of the first half when Mark Malone found Bob Weathers in the end zone. In the third quarter, Arizona State claimed the lead with two Malone touchdown passes and in the final quarter added another score with a rushing touchdown to make the score 28-10. Ted Blackwell brought the Scarlet Knights to within 10 points with his five-yard rushing touchdown and successful two-point conversion. Rutgers had a final chance to take over the game when an offside kick came bouncing its way, but an offside flag on the kickoff erased the Scarlet Knights' good fortune. Arizona State tacked on two touchdowns to secure the 34-18 victory.

PHOENIX – In a Wild West shootout staged at Phoenix's Chase Stadium, Rutgers fell just short of the program's first bowl victory, losing to Arizona State, 45-40, at the Insight Bowl. RU scored the game's first touchdown on a pass from Ryan Hart to Clark Harris, but ASU quickly responded with a TD of its own, evening the game at 7-7. Both teams traded a number of scores, but back-to-back touchdowns in the fourth quarter helped ASU to a 45-33 lead and the eventual victory. Rutgers engineered a 63-yard touchdown drive in the final 51 seconds, but it was not enough as the Sun Devils held on for the 45-40 win.

HOUSTON – Rutgers' most memorable season ended with another milestone victory. Ray Rice rushed for 170 yards and a touchdown and Tim Brown caught two touchdown passes, and the 16th-ranked Scarlet Knights won a bowl game for the first time, beating Kansas State in the Texas Bowl, 37-10. Linebacker Quintero Frierson returned an interception 27 yards for a touchdown on the first play from scrimmage of the second half and Rutgers cruised from there, earning an 11th victory for the second time in the school's history. Rice was named the game's Most Valuable Player after topping 100 yards for the 10th time this season and the 15th time in 25 career games. The 5-foot-9, 195-pound sophomore went over 150 yards for the fifth time this season. The Scarlet Knights' seventh-ranked defense manhandled Kansas State's offense, holding the Wildcats to 160 total yards and six first downs. Freshman quarterback Josh Freeman finished 10-for-21 for 124 yards with two interceptions. Kansas State mustered only 94 yards after Frierson's return of Freeman's first interception put Rutgers up 24-10 only 33 seconds out of halftime.

TORONTO – In its third-consecutive bowl game, Rutgers pulled off another program milestone with its second-straight postseason victory as the Scarlet Knights defeated Ball State, 52-30. Ray Rice had one of the finest individual outings in college football history, rushing for a career-high 280 yards and four touchdowns en route to being named the International Bowl's Most Valuable Player, his second-consecutive MVP honor in a bowl game. Rice's 280 yards were the third-most rushing yards in NCAA bowl history. He entered the game with 1,732 yards on the ground and ended his season with 2,012 yards rushing to become the 13th player in NCAA history to amass more than 2,000 yards. The rushing total also set a Big East and school single-season record. The 52 points scored were the most in Rutgers' bowl history. Including both individual and team marks, RU set a total of nine bowl records at the International Bowl.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. – Fitting that Rutgers would end the 2008 season with a come-from-behind win. After winning only one of their first six games, Mike Teel and the Scarlet Knights erased an 11-point second half deficit to defeat North Carolina State in the PapaJohns.com Bowl, 29-23. Leading the comeback -- as he did all season -- was Teel, who passed for 319 yards and two touchdowns, including a 42-yard scoring toss to Kenny Britt to give the Scarlet Knights the lead for good in the fourth quarter. Teel's pass to Britt with 8:30 to play proved to be the winning touchdown. Britt, a third-team All-American, made a juggling catch as he crossed the goal line and finished with six catches for 119 yards. Teel, a senior, was the game's most valuable player. He ended his career on a seven-game winning streak. NC State held a 17-6 halftime edge, led by quarterback Russell Wilson who was 11-for-23 for 186 yards and a score. But Wilson left the game with a strained knee late in the first half and did not return. The Scarlet Knights scored 10 consecutive points in the third quarter on a 31-yard field goal by San San Te and an 11-yard pass from Teel to Tiquan Underwood. Rutgers took a 19-17 lead with 13:31 to play on a 28-yard field by Te after a 10-play 70-yard drive. The Wolfpack came right back as reserve quarterback Daniel Evans drove them 64 yards in eight plays and hit Anthony Hill with a 16-yard touchdown pass to give NC State a 23-19 lead. But it was only two plays later when Teel hit Britt for the go-ahead score.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. – Rutgers capped off its fifth-straight bowl appearance with its fourth-consecutive bowl victory, defeating Central Florida, 45-24, in the 2009 St. Petersburg Bowl at Tropicana Field. The Scarlet Knights showed a great display of balance in all three phases of the game, recording touchdowns on offensive, defensive and special teams. RU ended the night with two rushing touchdowns, two passing touchdowns, one interception and one kickoff returned for scores. Rutgers gained 380 yards of total offense behind a career passing day from freshman quarterback Tom Savage who completed 14-of-27 passes for 294 yards and two touchdowns. Fellow true freshman Mohamed Sanu also enjoyed a career-best evening as he accounted for three of RU's five touchdowns. Sanu had 13 carries for 41 yards and a pair of touchdowns, in addition to catching four passes for 97 yards and a touchdown. For his performance Sanu was awarded the Most Outstanding Player trophy, joining past bowl honorees Ray Rice (2006 Texas Bowl, 2008 International Bowl) and Mike Teel (2008 PapaJohns.com Bowl).

BRONX, N.Y. – Chas Dodd hit Brandon Coleman for an 86-yard touchdown pass late in the fourth quarter and Jawan Jamison ran for two scores to lead Rutgers over Iowa State, 27-13, in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl. The Scarlet Knights ran their bowl winning streak to five and improved to 2-0 this season at Yankee Stadium, where they beat Army earlier in the season. Rutgers, which played in one bowl game before 2005, is 5-1 in the postseason since that season. The Cyclones finished the season on a three-game losing streak, their last win coming on Nov. 18 in Ames, Iowa, when they pulled off the biggest upset of the season against No. 2 Oklahoma State. In this game, Steele Jantz relieved Barnett in the second quarter and helped pull the Cyclones within 20-13 in the fourth on Jeff Woody's 20-yard touchdown run with 10:00 left. After an exchange of punts left Rutgers deep in its own end, Dodd went deep to Coleman. The 6-foot-6 redshirt freshman went over 5-7 cornerback Jeremy Reeves, then outran the corner to the end zone to make it 27-13 with 5:47 left. It was Coleman's only catch, but it turned out to be the play of the game. Jamison, another redshirt freshman giving Rutgers fans hope for more bowls to come, finished with 131 yards on 27 carries.

ORLANDO – Rutgers saw its 2012 season come to an end with a 13-10 overtime loss to Virginia Tech in the Russell Athletic Bowl in Orlando. The loss ended the Scarlet Knights' bowl win streak at five, which had previously been the longest active streak in the nation. In the 15th meeting between the two squads, Rutgers held a 10-0 lead heading into the fourth quarter. The Scarlet Knights scored first on a ball that was snapped over Virginia Tech quarterback Logan Thomas and recovered in the end zone by Rutgers linebacker Khaseem Greene on the opening drive. An RU field goal by Nick Borgese late in the opening quarter would be the final points until the last stanza. In the fourth, the Hokies were able to tie it up. In the first overtime possession, the Hokies settled for a 22-yard field goal to take a 13-10 lead. Rutgers had a possession to answer, but after going three-and-out, Borgese missed wide-right on a 42-yard field goal attempt to end the game. Rutgers finished the year 9-4 and earned a share of the school's first Big East Championship.

BRONX, N.Y. – A 47-yard field goal by Kyle Federico brought Rutgers within three with less than nine minutes remaining, but 10 unanswered points by Notre Dame iced the contest, as the Irish defeated the Scarlet Knights, 29-16, in the 2013 Pinstripe Bowl at Yankee Stadium. It was the eighth bowl trip in nine seasons for Rutgers. A Pinstripe Bowl record crowd of 47,122 watched a back-and-forth affair for the majority of the contest, with neither team leading by more than one possession until late in the fourth quarter. Brandon Coleman led RU in receiving with two catches for 65 yards and a touchdown, while Paul James logged 48 yards on 10 rushing attempts. Coleman's touchdown late in the first quarter was the 20th of his career, tying him for the school record. Federico converted all three of his field goal attempts.

2014 QUICK LANE BOWL

RUTGERS 40, NORTH CAROLINA 21

Dec. 26, 2014 • Detroit, Mich.

Ford Field • Attendance: 23,876

DETROIT – In control from the outset, Rutgers thoroughly dominated North Carolina, 40-21, in the Quick Lane Bowl at Ford Field, turning in one of its stronger performances of the year to finish the 2014 campaign at 8-5. Quarterback Gary Nova threw two touchdown passes, freshmen running backs Josh Hicks and Robert Martin proved to be a dynamic 1-2 punch in the running game, with each topping 100 yards rushing, and the Scarlet Knights' defense quieted the most productive offense in North Carolina history for all but the final 6:45 of the game. The Scarlet Knights jumped out to a 23-0 lead at halftime, sparked by a 34-yard touchdown pass from Nova to Andre Patton on the first drive of the game. Hicks and Martin both added rushing scores to pad the lead, with Kyle Federico connecting from 19 yards away with 11 seconds left in the second quarter. Nova, who finished 9-of-20 for 184 yards, pushed the Scarlet Knights' 23-0 halftime lead to 30-7 with his second touchdown pass - this one a 34-yard strike to Andrew Turzilli - with 7:33 left in the third quarter. The advantage grew to 37-7 on Martin's 28-yard touchdown run with 14:11 to play. Federico tacked on a 31-yard field goal with 10:04 remaining to make it 40-7. Martin and Hicks joined Ray Rice (three times) and Jawan Jamison as the only Rutgers backs to rush for 100 yards in a bowl game. Martin (19 carries for 100 yards and two touchdowns) and Hicks (202 yards and one touchdown on 19 carries) also joined Rice as the only true freshmen to reach 100 in a bowl for the Scarlet Knights. Hicks was named MVP of the game for his efforts. The rushing totals for both Martin and Hicks were career highs, with Rutgers' 340 rushing yards overall the most in program history in a bowl game and the highest total of the season.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. – Rutgers football lost to No. 20 Wake Forest, 38-10, in the 77th TaxSlayer Gator Bowl, held at TIAA Bank Field. With the 2021 bowl season impacted by the pandemic, the Scarlet Knights put together a roster to compete on just nine days' notice after they were selected to compete in the prestigious Gator Bowl, the sixth-oldest bowl game, on Dec. 23. Quarterback Johnny Langan earned Rutgers' MVP for the game with 57 receiving yards on a career-high six receptions, 20 rushing yards and two completions for 21 yards. Running back Aaron Young scored his team-leading sixth touchdown of the season on the team's opening possession and quarterback Gavin Wimsatt produced a team-long 32-yard rush. On defense, Mohamed Toure (1.5), Desmond Igbinosun (1.0) and Drew Singleton (0.5) all contributed sacks, while Kessawn Abraham led the way with two passes batted away. RU posted eight tackles-for-loss, including one to force a fumble by Igbinosun. Toure recorded a team-high seven tackles to match his career high. After Wake Forest found the end zone on its first possession, Rutgers responded with an 11-play, 75-yard scoring drive of its own. Quarterback Noah Vedral completed long third-down completions to Matt Alaimo, Jovani Haskins and Joshua Youngblood to set up a 12-yard touchdown run by Young with 5:11 left in the quarter. The Demon Deacons would add another touchdown for a 14-7 advantage at the end of one. The Scarlet Knights marched into enemy territory on their following possession to open the second quarter. Wide receiver Isaiah Washington threw across the field to Johnny Langan for a 27-yard gain, while placekicker Valentino Ambrosio drilled a 28-yard field goal four plays later to make it 14-10 with 12:02 left in the quarter. RU's defense held strong for the remainder of the first half, as it allowed just two field goals.

BRONX, N.Y. – Rutgers football (7-6) defeated Miami (7-6), 31-24, at the 2023 Bad Boy Mowers Pinstripe Bowl. It marked the program's seventh bowl championship, sixth under head coach Greg Schiano and second victory in the Pinstripe Bowl, as the Scarlet Knights secured their first winning season since 2014. Down 17-14 with just over 10 minutes left in the third quarter, RU scored 17 unanswered points to collect the win over the Hurricanes. DB Trevor Yeboah-Kodie blocked a punt at Miami's one-yard line, which was recovered by DB Timmy Ward in the end zone for a touchdown, while QB Gavin Wimsatt's second rushing score of the day and a 35-yard field goal from PK Jai Patel helped Rutgers to the come-from-behind victory. RB Kyle Monangai earned the game's MVP trophy after he finished with 25 carries for 163 yards and a touchdown. It was the seventh 100-yard rushing game for Monangai, who finished the season with 1,262 yards on the ground. LB Deion Jennings led the defense with nine tackles and one for loss, LB Mohamed Toure added eight tackles, two tackles-for-loss and a sack, while freshman LB Abram Wright recorded his first career interception.

WILLIAM F. TATE IV

PRESIDENT OF RUTGERS UNIVERSITY

William F. Tate IV, an award-winning scholar, took office as the 22nd president of Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, on July 1, 2025. He also serves as a University Professor and Distinguished Professor.

Prior to accepting the Rutgers presidency, he served as president of Louisiana State University (LSU) and held faculty and leadership roles at the University of South Carolina, Washington University in St. Louis, Texas Christian University (TCU), and the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

PREVIOUS ROLES

As chief executive officer of both the LSU system and its flagship campus, President Tate oversaw a public research institution with over 60,000 undergraduate, graduate, and professional students; 3,000 full-time faculty; an estimated economic impact of over $6 billion; and more than 200 licenses, while holding faculty appointments in sociology, psychiatry and behavioral medicine, epidemiology, and public health. In recognition of his record-setting tenure at Louisiana State University, Dr. Tate received a U.S. Congressional Commendation, along with formal resolutions from the Louisiana Senate and House of Representatives.

President Tate served as executive vice president for academic affairs and provost, while holding the Education Foundation Distinguished University Professorship, at the University of South Carolina. Prior to that, he served as a department chair and dean of the graduate school and vice provost for graduate education at Washington University in St. Louis. In addition, he held the Edward Mallinckrodt Distinguished University Professorship in Arts and Sciences. Prior to joining Washington University in St. Louis, he served as the William L. and Betty F. Adams Chair at TCU and as a tenured faculty member at the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

ACADEMIC BACKGROUND

President Tate is an elected member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and the National Academy of Education. In addition, he is the recipient of numerous research recognitions including being elected to fellow status in the American Educational Research Association (AERA) as well as association-related honors including an Early Career Contribution Award, Presidential Citation, Distinguished Scholar Award in Mathematics Education, and Distinguished Contributions in Education Research Lifetime Achievement Award-Division G.

He was awarded the Anna Julia Cooper Postdoctoral Fellowship to study social and public policy at the University of Wisconsin–Madison. He later completed a second postdoctoral fellowship at the Washington University School of Medicine, where he earned a Master's in Psychiatric Epidemiology (M.P.E.).

Prior to his postdoctoral training, President Tate earned a Ph.D. in mathematics education with a cognate in human development from the University of Maryland, College Park, where he was a Patricia Roberts Harris Fellow. He also holds an M.A. in mathematical sciences education from the University of Texas at Dallas and a B.S. in economics with a minor in mathematical sciences from Northern Illinois University.

He is married to Kim Cash Tate and they have two young adult children. Kim Cash Tate is an author, Bible teacher, singer/songwriter, and YouTuber. She earned a B.A. from the University of Maryland, College Park, and a J.D. from the George Washington University Law School.

KELI ZINN

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Keli Zinn, a collegiate athletics leader with over 20 years of power conference experience and a proven track record of transforming championship-level programs, enters her first season as Rutgers Athletic Director.

Zinn arrives 'On the Banks,' following her stint as the executive deputy athletic director and chief operating officer at Louisiana State University. Zinn oversaw all external and internal affairs of the athletics department, working closely with University leadership, senior athletics administration and campus and community partners. Her work included supervision of all 21 varsity programs with direct oversight of football and gymnastics, revenue generation, capital projects and strategic initiatives.

Zinn was instrumental in advancing LSU's Name, Image, and Likeness (NIL) strategy, forging a partnership to produce The Money Game, a documentary series following Tigers student-athletes, which launched on Amazon Prime Video. Her innovative approach secured NIL agreements and fundraising growth across multiple sports, positioning LSU as a national NIL leader.

Zinn helped drive a significant growth in revenue, renegotiating the Tigers' multimedia rights partnerships, securing a 21 percent increase in value. She was instrumental in boosting ticket sales, merchandise revenue and donor support during her time at LSU. In 2024, football surpassed its highest number of season tickets since 2017, with a total of 71,250 tickets sold.

At LSU, Zinn helped lead the Tigers to unprecedented success: four national championships (gymnastics, women's basketball, and baseball twice), three SEC titles including women's track and field and women's gymnastics, and a top-10 finish in the Director's Cup for the first time since 2008-09.

The football program completed one of the biggest turnarounds in college football during Zinn's first season in Baton Rouge in 2022, posting a 10-win regular season and the SEC Western Division title before winning the Citrus Bowl. In her three years with the Tigers, football won 29 games, with a 3-0 record in bowl games, and celebrated numerous first round NFL Draft picks, including 2023 Heisman Trophy winner, Jayden Daniels.

Prior to her time at LSU, Zinn spent 12 seasons at her alma mater West Virginia. While there, she served as deputy athletics director and chief operating officer of the department from 2016-2022. A native of Petersburg, West Viriginia, Zinn was appointed the school's interim Director of Athletics, becoming the first woman to lead the department.

Zinn joined WVU in 2010 as associate athletic director for compliance and governance and in 2014, was elevated to executive senior associate athletics director. In her oversight of the day-to-day operations, Zinn helped guide the athletic department through its transition into the Big 12 in 2012.

In Nov. 2021, Zinn was selected as West Virginia Executive Magazine's cover recipient of the 2022 Young Guns Class, representing a generation of leaders who have accomplished great things through their careers in the business world and in their communities.

A 2020 inductee into the WVU College of Physical Activity and Sport Sciences Hall of Fame, Zinn has twice received national recognition from the Sports Business Journal, being name to their Forty Under 40 honors in 2019, and selected as one of SBJ's Game Changers in 2016.

She earned a bachelor's degree and master's degree in sport management from West Virginia University.

Zinn began her career in collegiate athletics, serving as a compliance assistant with the Big East (2003-2004) before joining the University of Maryland as an assistant athletics director for compliance (2005-2010).

Zinn and her husband, Nathaniel, married in 2017.

FOOTBALL ATHLETIC COMMUNICATIONS

JIMMY GILL
ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR, COMMUNICATIONS

Office: 732-445-8103 • Cell: 732-991-9486
E-mail: jgill@scarletknights.com • X: @jgill027

Jimmy Gill has worked with Rutgers football since 2013 and is in his fifth season as the primary communications contact for the program after being promoted to associate athletic director. He first joined the athletic communications office in 2011 for one academic year before heading to Miami (Fla.) and returning to be part of Rutgers' transition to the Big Ten. Gill also served 11 seasons as the baseball contact and eight as the gymnastics contact for the Scarlet Knights. In 2022, RU saw P Adam Korsak win the Ray Guy Award in becoming the first player program history to win a national on-field award. Gill was promoted from assistant director of athletic communications to associate director in June 2014 and was part of the 2014 staff that was honored by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) as a recipient of the Super 11 Award. Prior to coming back to RU, Gill worked at Miami (Fla.) as the volleyball and third football contact in the fall of 2012. The volleyball team successfully earned an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament and Gill was named CoSIDA Division I Volleyball East Region Sports Information Director Honoree for his efforts along the way. After the football season, he worked as a media relations assistant for the Orange Bowl committee for its annual game and the BCS National Championship. During the 2011-2012 academic year, Gill served as athletic communications assistant at Rutgers as the contact for baseball, volleyball, women's tennis and gymnastics. He successfully promoted the Big East Player of the Year for baseball in addition to expanding the social media presence for each of his four sports. A native of Lewes, Delaware, he earned a bachelor's degree in political science from Swarthmore (Pa.) College in 2010, before receiving his master's degree in sport administration from the University of Miami (Fla.) in 2011. While working towards his master's degree, Gill worked as a graduate assistant in the UM communications office, helping with all aspects of the office while functioning as the primary women's golf contact. He got his start in the business in the Swarthmore sports information department as a student worker with a primary focus on statistics for various sports. Gill was a four-year starter for the Garnet baseball team, earning all-conference honors and captaining the program's first-ever playoff appearance as a senior in 2010. An outfielder, he left in the top-10 in program history in games played, doubles, RBIs and single-season home runs. Gill resides in Piscataway.

Bradly Derechailo begins his four year as Director of Athletic Communications and 11th year with Rutgers Athletics after joining the staff in June 2015. A two-time Rutgers alumnus, Derechailo serves as the primary contact for the Scarlet Knights' wrestling and women's lacrosse programs as well as secondary duties with football. The Keyport, New Jersey, native majored in journalism and media studies "On the Banks," earning minors in English and digital communication, information and media. As a student intern at Rutgers from 2014-15, Derechailo served as the media contact for the gymnastics team in addition to his daily office responsibilities. Prior to his work with Rutgers Athletic Communications, Derechailo gained experience as a corporate communications intern for the Chubb Group of Insurance Companies during the summer of 2014. As a member of the Chubb Group, Derechailo produced press releases and helped manage the company's social media accounts among numerous other public relations roles. Derechailo also spent time as a writer and editor for The Daily Targum, Rutgers' daily student-run newspaper, working his way up to the role of Associate Sports Editor on the 145th Editorial Board. In his position, he helped manage the sports desk's team of writers, assigning and writing stories which appeared online and in daily print. Teams covered as a beat writer during his tenure with the paper include football, men's basketball, wrestling, and women's soccer. Derechailo graduated from Rutgers University with his bachelor's degree in 2015 and his master's degree in 2019. Derechailo resides in Somerset with his wife, Tory, and daughter, Cora.

GRIFFIN WHITMER (CREDENTIALS)
ASSISTANT DIRECTOR, COMMUNICATIONS

Cell: 908-447-0783
E-mail: gwhitmer@scarletknights.com • X: @GriffinWhitmer

Griffin Whitmer, a 2020 graduate of Rutgers, returned to the Rutgers athletic department in March 2022 and currently serves as Assistant Director, Communications. In his role, Whitmer is the primary contact for baseball, women's soccer and gymnastics. He also oversees the credentialing process and stats operation for football. Whitmer joined Rutgers after serving multiple roles in the athletic department at the University of Washington in Seattle. He joined UW in February 2021 as a graduate assistant and was the primary contact for the baseball program. He moved to the role of Communications Assistant in the summer of 2021, continuing his work with the baseball team and also acting as the media contact for both men's and women's soccer, softball and gymnastics. He worked with the UW men's soccer team, managing communications, social media and game management efforts for the Huskies, who reached No. 1 in the national rankings, hosted three NCAA Tournament matches and advanced to the National Championship Game in the College Cup. He was the secondary media contact for the UW men's basketball and women's basketball teams and served on the nationally-recognized stat crew for football, working all Washington home games as well as the Rose Bowl Game in Pasadena, Calif. in January 2022. While at UW, Whitmer received a M.Ed. in Intercollegiate Athletic Leadership with a focus on administration. Whitmer is a 2020 graduate of Rutgers, holding a degree in Sport Management. At RU, he was a staff writer, Associate Sports Editor and correspondent at the Daily Targum from 2016-18 before moving to the Rutgers athletic department. He worked as a marketing intern from 2018-19 and then as a communications intern from 2019-20.

HASIM PHILLIPS
EXECUTIVE SENIOR ASSOCIATE AD/ CHIEF COMMUNICATIONS OFFICER

Office: 732-445-6069 • Cell: 732-470-9457
E-mail: hphillips@scarletknights.com • X: @HasimPhillips

Hasim Phillips serves as Executive Senior Associate Athletic Director and Chief Communcations Officer, with oversight of the department's communication, brand advancement and RVision staffs. Phillips serves as the primary spokesman for the department and is a member of the executive leadership team. Prior to his elevation to overseeing the communications staff, Phillips was the lead media relations contact for the football program, handling all media inquiries for the program's coaches and players. Additionally, he was the executive producer for the "RFootball Show," a 12-episode television series with distribution throughout the East Coast from New York to areas in South Florida. Phillips also managed all football related content on the school's official athletics website (ScarletKnights.com) and social media channels. For Phillips, this is the second stint with Rutgers Athletics, having previously served with the department from 2004-2012. He began his career in athletic communications at Rutgers in 2004, serving as an assistant until 2007 before becoming an Assistant Director for Athletic Communications from 2007-11. While at Rutgers, he was a member of an athletic communications staff that was twice (2009, 2010) recognized by the Football Writers Association of America as a "Super 11" communications department, awarded to the top PR offices in the country. In 2011, he was elevated to the role of Associate Director of Athletic Communications, serving as the primary media contact for Hall of Fame head coach C. Vivian Stringer and the women's basketball team. Phillips joined The Madison Square Garden Company in 2012 as Manager for Corporate Communications. He assisted in the publicity efforts of the MSG Sports brand, helping promote marketing partnerships and new business initiatives. He also worked to promote the New York Knicks' community service initiative "Basketball in the Boroughs," securing targeted media opportunities to highlight the franchise's work in the community. He was involved with press event planning in the corporate and sports business areas, including the grand reopening event following a historic three-phase, top-to-bottom transformation of Madison Square Garden. He also assisted in preparing senior level management for speaking engagements and developing press materials for marketing partner announcements. Phillips also managed inquiries regarding the use of MSG trademarks or logos in television or film projects. He was responsible for script review and concept approval in addition to working with production crews while filming on site at Madison Square Garden. He served as a liaison between MSG, the corporate offices of the National Basketball Association (NBA) and National Hockey League (NHL), and several major motion picture and television studios. Phillips, a native of Brooklyn, New York, is a 2004 graduate of Rutgers University with a degree in sports management. He earned his MBA in marketing and strategy from the Rutgers School of Business in 2019. Phillips resides in Metuchen, New Jersey, with his wife Catherine and their sons, Malakai and Miles.

COMMISSIONER TONY PETITTI

BIG TEN CONFERENCE

Known as one of intercollegiate sports' most successful undertakings, the Big Ten Conference is home to a lineage of legendary names and an ongoing tradition of developing strong leaders. Even in its infancy, the conference established itself as the preeminent collection of institutions in the nation, where the pursuit of academic excellence prevailed as the definitive goal.

The history of the Big Ten traces back more than 125 years to the Palmer House hotel in Chicago where, on January 11, 1895, Purdue President James H. Smart and leaders from the University of Chicago, University of Illinois, University of Michigan, University of Minnesota, Northwestern University and University of Wisconsin set out to organize and develop principles for the regulation of intercollegiate athletics.

At that meeting, a blueprint for the administration of college athletics under the direction of appointed faculty representatives was outlined. The presidents' first known action "restricted eligibility for athletics to bona fide, full-time students who were not delinquent in their studies." That important legislation, along with other legislation that would follow in the coming years, served as the primary building block for intercollegiate athletics.

On February 8, 1896, one faculty member from each of those seven universities met at the same Palmer House and officially established the fundamentals of the conference, which was officially incorporated as the "Intercollegiate Conference Athletic Association" in 1905.

Indiana University and the State University of Iowa became the eighth and ninth members in 1899. In 1908, Michigan briefly withdrew its membership, and in 1912 Ohio State University joined the conference, bringing the membership total back to nine. Upon Michigan's return in 1917, the conference was first referred to as the "Big Ten" by media members, a name that was eventually incorporated in 1987.

As the 1900s dawned, faculty representatives established rules for intercollegiate athletics that were novel for the time. As early as 1904, the faculty approved legislation that required eligible athletes to meet entrance requirements and to have completed a full year's work, along with having one year of residence.

In 1901, the first Big Ten Championship event was staged when the outdoor track and field championships were conducted at the University of Chicago. The debut event marked what is now a staple of conference competition. Today, the Big Ten sponsors 28 official sports, 14 for men and 14 for women. Big Ten schools compete in a total of 42 different sports, furthering the conference's commitment to broad-based programming and providing more participation opportunities than any conference in the country.

One of the conference's proudest traditions began in 1902 when Michigan took on Stanford in the Rose Bowl, the nation's first bowl game. Big Ten teams only appeared in Pasadena twice before the conference signed an exclusive contract with the Tournament of Roses in 1946, making it the first bowl game with permanent conference affiliations. But Michigan's appearance in 1902 cultivated a relationship that has endured for more than a century.

Coupling the academic goals set forth by leaders of the charter members of the conference and their steadfast commitment to athletics, the conference instituted the Big Ten Medal of Honor in 1915, the first award to demonstrate support for the educational emphasis placed on intercollegiate athletics. It is awarded annually by each conference institution to one male and one female student of the graduating class who have attained the greatest proficiency in scholarship and athletics. For more than 100 years, it has been the most prestigious honor a Big Ten student-athlete can receive.

In 1922, Major John L. Griffith became the conference's first "Commissioner of Athletics." Griffith was the first of seven men to assume the role of commissioner in the conference's history, followed by Kenneth L. "Tug" Wilson in 1945, Bill Reed in 1961, Wayne Duke in 1971, Jim Delany in 1989, Kevin Warren in 2020, and current commissioner Tony Petitti in 2023.

After nearly 30 years with 10 members, the conference consolidated to nine schools when the University of Chicago formally withdrew its membership in 1946. Michigan State College (now Michigan State University) was added to the Big Ten three years later, bringing the number of affiliated conference schools to 10 once again.

In 1955, the Big Ten formulated a revenue-sharing model designed to pool all football television rights of its members and share those proceeds equally. The conference and its members continue to utilize a revenue-sharing model, dividing media rights, bowl payouts and other profits among all institutions.

While academics have always played an integral role in the conference, presidents of the Big Ten member institutions formalized the primacy of academics with the establishment of the Big Ten Academic Alliance (formerly the Committee on Institutional Cooperation) in 1958. The Big Ten Academic Alliance is an academic consortium of all Big Ten universities. Annually, the schools currently constituting the Big Ten Academic Alliance produce over $10 billion in funded research, doubling any other conference.

In one of Duke's first actions as commissioner, he oversaw the adoption of the Big Ten Advisory Commission in 1972, designed to study conference programs and make suggestions which would further Big Ten objectives. The Advisory Commission enlists former students that competed in Big Ten athletics to serve as liaisons to the NCAA's Diversity and Inclusion Department, the Big Ten Student-Athlete Advisory Commission and other organizations.

In 1981, the conference presidents and chancellors endorsed a proposal that enabled universities to affiliate their women's intercollegiate programs with the conference, and the first conference championships for women were staged that fall. The Big Ten was the first conference to voluntarily adopt male and female participation goals after launching its Gender Equity Action Plan in 1992.

In December of 1989, the conference agreed in principle to invite Pennsylvania State University for membership. On June 4, 1990, the Council of Presidents officially voted to integrate Penn State into the conference, giving the Big Ten 11 members.

In 2004, the Big Ten implemented a pilot program of instant replay for college football. Following the season, the conference forwarded replay proposals to the NCAA regarding the future use of the pioneering technology, where it approved country-wide testing in 2005. In 2006, the NCAA approved the use of instant replay for all conferences.

In 2006, Delany announced the creation of the first conference-owned television network, a 20-year agreement with FOX Networks to create the Big Ten Network (BTN). Launched on Aug. 30, 2007, BTN now produces more than 2,200 live events across all platforms each year. The 24/7 network is the ultimate destination for Big Ten fans and alumni across the country and around the world, allowing them to see their favorite teams, regardless of where they live.

On June 11, 2010, the Big Ten Council of Presidents/Chancellors (COP/C) approved a formal membership application by the University of Nebraska, expanding the conference to 12 institutions. Nebraska officially joined the Big Ten on July 1, 2011.

The conference expanded its footprint further in 2012 when the COP/C approved formal membership applications from the University of Maryland and Rutgers University on November 19 and 20, respectively. Maryland and Rutgers became official Big Ten members on July 1, 2014, giving the conference almost 9,500 students participating in intercollegiate athletics and more than 11,000 participation opportunities on 350 teams.

On June 3, 2013, the Big Ten announced that Johns Hopkins University had been accepted as the conference's first sport affiliate member. Johns Hopkins' addition in men's lacrosse gave the Big Ten six institutions sponsoring the sport, allowing the debut of men's lacrosse as an official conference sport and building on the Big Ten's tradition of broad-based sports competition. On June 17, 2015, the conference announced that Johns Hopkins also was accepted as a sport affiliate member for women's lacrosse beginning with the 2016-17 academic year. On March 23, 2016, the conference announced that Notre Dame would be joining the Big Ten for men's ice hockey beginning with the 2017-18 academic year.

In recent years the Big Ten has worked to meet the educational needs of modern student-athletes to allow them to excel in all areas of their lives. In May of 2020, the conference announced the formation of the Big Ten Mental Health and Wellness Cabinet, featuring representation from all 14 member institutions, as well as sport affiliate members. The goal of the cabinet is to promote optimal mental health for Big Ten student-athletes through a comprehensive, systemic and interdisciplinary approach to establishing mental health programs, while also providing counsel, advice and expertise to the conference office.

In June of 2020 the conference launched the Big Ten Equality Coalition. This group, which features student-athletes, coaches, athletic directors, chancellors, presidents and other members of the Big Ten family from all 14 member institutions, has a stated goal of seeking tangible ways to actively and constructively combat racism and hate around the world, while also empowering student-athletes to express their rights to free speech and peaceful protest. One product of conversations emerging from the coalition was the creation of the Big Ten Voter Registration Initiative. This non-partisan, conference-wide collaboration encourages student-athletes to take part in the electoral process and is led by a Voter Registration Committee that includes representatives from all 14 Big Ten institutions. The Voter Registration Committee has partnered with the National Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights Under Law to develop educational programming and outreach tools, and to collaborate with other established civic platforms.

On June 30, 2022, the Big Ten Conference furthered its legacy of transformation when the Big Ten Council of Presidents/Chancellors (COP/C) voted unanimously to admit the University of California, Los Angeles and the University of Southern California to the conference effective August 2, 2024. Competition began for all conference sports in the 2024-25 academic year. With the schools' admission, UCLA and USC also joined the Big Ten Academic Alliance (BTAA), a consortium of world-class research institutions dedicated to advancing their academic missions.

In July of 2022, the Big Ten traveled a delegation of student-athletes and administrators from its member institutions to Selma and Montgomery, Alabama, for an immersive experience entitled: "Big Life Series: Selma to Montgomery." The pilgrimage to one of the key centers of the civil rights movement was highlighted by a march across the Edmund Pettus Bridge in Selma, which is the site of the 1965 Bloody Sunday attack. The delegation also visited the Montgomery Interpretive Center on the campus of Alabama State University to learn more about the profound impact that students had on the civil rights movement, and the significance of the Knight vs. Alabama landmark trial which ended the segregation of funding in higher education across the State of Alabama. The experience was so transformational for all involved that the Big Ten returned to Selma and Montgomery in 2023 and 2024.

In April of 2023, the Big Ten announced that Petitti was selected as the conference's seventh commissioner. With nearly four decades of sports, business and media industry acumen, he served as deputy commissioner and chief operating officer of Major League Baseball and president and chief executive officer of MLB Network. A 14-time National Sports Emmy Award winner, Petitti also held senior executive roles at CBS Sports and ABC Sports overseeing rights acquisition deals for a variety of sports leagues and collegiate and professional sports events, including the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, regular season men's basketball, college football, NFL, PGA Tour, the Masters, U.S. Open Tennis Championships, and the Little League World Series, as well as leading in the creation of the Bowl Championship Series to determine college football's national champion.

On August 4, 2023, the Big Ten The Big Ten Council of Presidents/Chancellors voted unanimously to admit the University of Oregon and the University of Washington to the conference effective August 2, 2024. Competition began in all sports for the 2024-25 academic year. With the schools' admission, Oregon and Washington joined the Big Ten Academic Alliance (BTAA), a consortium of world-class research institutions dedicated to advancing their academic missions.
